It Is a Burning Shame

that so many churches are without sufficient insurance and not properly safeguarded against fire.

THE NATIONAL MUTUAL CHURCH INSURANCE COMPANY OF CHICAGO

(The Methodist Mutual)

has continuously since 1899 been furnishing protection AT COST against FIRE, LIGHTNING, AND WINDSTORM. No assessments; easy annual payments; legal reserve for protection of policyholders same as stock companies. Parsonages, Homes, and Personal Effects of Ministers and Church Members also insured. AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE FOR MEMBERS.

NO AGENTS DEAL DIRECT

Save money by using your own Insurance Company. Policies now in effect on nearly every church in Methodism in the United States. Gross losses paid, over THREE AND ONE-HALF MILLION DOLLARS.

NOT ONE DOLLAR EVER DUE AND UNPAID

OFFICERS

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Always Bear in Mind

- THAT your Own Denominational Publishing House is equipped to completely minister to every need of every Methodist Church School.
- THAT one of the chief concerns of the great publishing interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church is the production of your Church School Periodicals.
- THAT these LESSON HELPS and STORY PAPERS are a Major Factor in the Growth and Success of the Church School, and
- THAT loyalty of all Methodists to the Book Concern will insure more liberal dividends for the retired preachers, their wives, widows, and children, to whom all profits from the business go.

Use Methodist Literature in your Church Schools.

VI REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' COMPOSITE REPORT

Read by H. O. PERRY

Brothers and Sisters of the United Sessions:

The limits set upon a report of the kind I am about to read make it impossible to give details. The report will make an honest effort to set forth the present situation in our churches of this territory, interpret the Christian principles on which we should operate and make recommendations concerning the immediate future.

INSTITUTIONS

The constant danger of the church's institutional life is that she shall absorb her strength in maintaining institutions as such, without an understanding of the Christian principle of growth and change. We have institutions to meet human needs. Those needs change and even the very method by which we support these institutions should meet human need. The church will come to stagnation and death unless she realizes that God working through us is constantly eager to meet human needs. Parents need children just as much as children need parents, and if the money given for the maintenance of any of our institutions or the church herself does not build Christian life in the hearts of those who give as well as in the hearts of those for whom the money is given, our efforts to carry on are vain.

Deaconess Home Association of Seattle.—In the early days the Methodists of this territory had the far vision to organize a Deaconess Home Association. This Association established the Seattle General Hospital, The Northwest Training School, also a Deaconess Settlement in the heart of the most needy and cosmopolitan district of the city. These institutions all functioned splendidly. Two years ago we gave to a private corporation all our interest in the Seattle General Hospital.

In Spokane and Wenatchee we have been more fortunate. In each place an able and devout minister heads our hospital. There is a distinct religious atmosphere, and much free work is given to the needy. Both the Spokane Deaconess Hospital and the Central Washington Deaconess Hospital have a balance on the right side of the ledger. We should again have a Methodist Hospital on the Puget Sound.

The Deaconess Home Association has lowered the debt of the Northwest Training School, from $4,200 to less than $2,000, and maintained the Settlement work, though the Settlement has had a difficult time making ends meet. We are asking the Conference to again permit us to receive offerings for the work of this association and to finally pay off the Northwest Training School debt. If the churches will now maintain their assistance, we will have five to ten thousand dollar equity in property when times improve and we can again carry forward the great work of the Deaconess Home Association.

Our Conference ought to establish an Old People's Home. Constantly the need is evident. Who will come forward with a gift sufficient to launch it?

The Goodwill Program.—On the practical side of life, one of the most efficient programs the church is carrying forward in the cities of this territory is that of the Goodwill Industries. Here is a plan to gather up the material fragments and utilize them in such a way as to give handicapped people a real life. The material salvage is used to salvage people. We have two of these organizations, one in Seattle and one in Tacoma. Each one is led by a man who has religious vision. The atmosphere around the institutions is distinctly kind and courteous. It is also evangelistic. The hundreds of people who pass through these institutions are constantly finding God a reality in their lives. There is no apology for a daily religious service, and this service is exalted as the secret of Goodwill success. It would mean much if we could establish a Goodwill at Spokane.

Children's Home.—One of the finest institutions this Conference has is a Children's Home, located at Everett, Washington. We take children from any part of the Conference and make a business of finding suitable homes for them. We are asking the Conference this year for $2,000 to carry on this most excellent work.

Woman's Home Missionary Institutions.—The Woman's Home Missionary institutions at Wilkeson and at Tacoma are carrying on settlement work successfully. The work at both places is of a high order and deserving of support.

Our College.—One of the first institutions of our church in the state of Washington was what has now developed into the College of Puget Sound at Tacoma, Washington. It has come to what it is, spiritually and financially, under the able and long-continued leadership of Dr. Edward H. Todd. Its standards and independence of party politics has made it a challenge to tax-supported institutions. It is the conviction of your Superintendents that any efforts which the church as such makes from now on should be made to back the School of Religion. This is one of the strong features of the College of Puget Sound and should be made yet stronger for the hope of the church so far as this college is concerned, lies in the effectiveness of this department.

Wesley Foundations.—Within the bounds of the Pacific Northwest Conference there are three great tax-supported universities and colleges and four normal schools. When we stop to think that from a sixth to a fifth of all these students come from Methodist homes, it becomes evident immediately that it will be impossible for any local church or churches to adequately care for the religious and social development of our Methodist students. No money is better spent than is used to help our university, college, and normal school students go out to their task with a Christian experience and a Christian program. The director is first of all and distinctively the students' pastor and many students find their way into a Christian experience.

At Moscow and Pullman we have joined hands with the other evangelical churches to establish Schools of Religion which offer courses in religion and credits earned are recognized in the state schools. At the University of Idaho, near the campus, the evangelical churches own a building and carry forward a regular school with our indefatigable C. W. Tenny as the leader and professor. Ministers should visit the headquarters.

In Seattle there is a Foundation independent of the churches but co-operating with all of them, and under the direction of the Wesley Foundation Director. It has one of the most extensive set-ups of social and religious activity anywhere in the nation, 3,000 students a week passing through Wesley House. Definite service has been rendered to about 500 students and the director has had 1,245 conferences with students on matters of vital life import.

The Foundation at Seattle is in a campaign to raise its $20,000 of indebtedness. About $6,000 has already been subscribed to this fund and $1,355 cash paid. We have a property valued at $40,000.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

By your order the District Superintendents have for two years had full charge of Religious Educational leadership. We are not a unit as to the practicability of the arrangement, but there has been an honest effort by each man, in his own way, to do the work assigned. Your Superintendents have all participated in the Summer Institutes for young people. Standard training classes have been promoted over the whole Conference, as have the thirty-eight simplified courses. A standard training class was held for pastors and also a number were held for church-school executives and teachers.

Much has also been done on each district to give the financial side of our program its true religious significance. In some instances there has been a real forward move in religious life while carrying through a financial program. Furthermore, your Superintendents have for two years met with Dr. Forsyth, head of the leadership training of our Board of Education, and specifically studied our task as District Superintendents and religious educational leaders. We were also in the Summer Post Graduate School at the College of Puget Sound.

Whether one is enthusiastic for the District Superintendent to have charge of the religious educational work will be determined somewhat by his conception of the job. If districts continue to increase in size, it will be impossible to have your Superintendents do this work effectively. If those who promulgate the idea of a functional superintendency should be successful in their propaganda, it would not be advisable to have more than one doing this work. It is our opinion that the quickest way to wreck the church would be to adopt a functional superintendency. Most specialists go to seed and their approach is anything but Christian. The church needs all-round men in the District Superintendency—men who can see the import of the whole program of the church. The most successful District Superintendent will be a personnel officer, a supervisor, a pastor, a missionary, a statesman, and a religious leader. We are all too conscious of our limitations, but it is something to discover what we ought to be.

FINANCES

We are glad to report to you that there is an improvement in the finances of our churches this year. Ministers will receive more support. Striking campaigns at Kelso, Aberdeen, Eatonville, Port Angeles, Toppenish, Cashmere, Okanogan, Fowler (Spokane), Chewelah, Mason (Tacoma), have either greatly reduced or wiped out the debts. Grace (Seattle) raised $4,000 and paid for a new location beside a program of improvement. Parsonages are being built at Culatesac, Omak, and Parkland, churches built or finished at Carlton and Algona, smaller improvements and debt payments have been too numerous to mention. It also now looks as though both the World Service and Conference benevolences would be larger than last year.

We would like to again suggest the advisability of each church having a benevolent budget as well as a local budget. It is the logical and fair method and will keep "Other Benevolences" from absorbing more than their share of funds.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

We have to confess that there are many things about the church which should be different. In the year 1924 the effective resident membership of this territory was 46,026. In 1934, ten years later, it was 46,283, a gain of only 257.

During the same period the church schools lost 3,455 in average attendance. The Epworth League membership did increase 561.

In 1924 the churches of this territory gave $156,485 to Disciplinary Benevolences. In 1934 they only gave $64,399 to the same causes, $14,000 less than half. In 1924 the church of this territory gave $85,644 to Conference Benevolences. In 1934 they gave to the same causes $15,728, or less than one-fifth of the giving of 1924. The depression is not an adequate answer to these figures. It is significant that during this whole period of forced retrenchment there never have been made more frantic appeals, with much talk about the disaster that awaits the Kingdom and the church. For a time it appeared that even our church attendance was going into decline. We are glad to report that generally speaking, during the last two years church attendance has greatly improved and young people's work has grown in effectiveness and size.

May it not be proper for us to inquire into some of the causes for these conditions and look for a remedy? It is just as necessary to have a right philosophy of life as it is to have an orthodox theology.

The Christian Church, both at home and abroad, has extended its work by several radically different approaches.

1. It is illustrated by Paul's conciliatory remarks on Mars Hill.

2. By Constantine, who made people Christian in name and crusaders for the name.

3. Illustrated by much modern church approach. We proclaim Christ as the only true way and give no quarter to any other faith or way.

I think we would all immediately eliminate the Constantine method. But we have representatives of Paul's method on Mars Hill, and the method of giving no quarter to another faith in the church everywhere, both at home and abroad.

The Laymen's Missionary Report would have us use the first method entirely. They give the impression that you should convert people by being nice to them. The church is full of that philosophy. Moreover it is undoubtedly the Christian approach, but not all of it.

If Jesus represents what God is like for human beings, His message is universal, His life is mandatory.

We will not have a great church until we face up to the matter of really being Christian in the midst of a pagan age. The Laymen's Report reiterates many times that Jesus brought a way of life. It is full of suggestion that by strategy and technique we can find this "way of life," and it wants us thus to establish the "Kingdom of God." These ideas come from America. They need amendment. Jesus is not only a founder and teacher but the highest expression of religious life. He is not just a "way of life." He is the life.

Humanism in the Church.—The influence of John Dewey, Theodore Dreiser, James Truslow Adams and a lot of others has premeated into the church. Our whole church life is influenced with humanism, even though we are not conscious of it.

If you will read the ten recommendations of the "Appraisal Commission of the Laymen's Inquiry" you will find that eight of them deal with method. For twenty years the church has gone to seed on methods of building the Kingdom, while all too little has been said about the supreme method needed—that of contacting God and making Him real in the life of the world.

There is not a single thing wrong with the finest human endeavor that John Dewey can make to build a better world except that he leaves out God—the God whose nature we see in Christ. Without the reality of that God, humanity is arrogant, self-sufficient, loses dynamic and degenerates. On this matter we stand with E. Stanley Jones in his recent book, "Christ's Alternative to Communism."

Too much has the church tried to save itself in the humanist way. We have no objection to method if it is premeated with the presence of God. But the evidences of a paganized church are everywhere.

On the other side, in these last days our religion has been too much loyalty to a musty creed which no one understands. Regular crusaders along this line have blighted real Christianity.

Glenn Frank says that education which does not include the reality of God, will furnish no compelling impulses. He says, "If it is a race between education and catastrophe, then my guess is that catastrophe will win for . . . existing education has not that in it to salvage civilization."

Harnack once said, "Christianity gives no solutions, but gives a goal and power to move on to that goal."

The supernatural either in science or religion is that which is beyond human knowledge. It must be used by both science and religion. The scientist freely acknowledge that he must predicate his experiments on suppositions he cannot prove. God is in His world and needed equally by science and religion, and to him who finds God a reality there is dynamic to build a world and secured in no other way.

Dr. Charles Clayton Morrison would abolish Home Missions and emasculate Foreign Missions. Mrs. Margaret Bro would abolish the church school, Pearl S. Buck would form a board of super-men, perhaps like the laymen of the "Inquiry" to take over all denominational missionary work. Perhaps all of these people are consciously or unconsciously trying to free themselves from the fetters of institutionalism. Institutionalism is ever the danger to the church. One revival after another has again brought life when the patient seemed all but smothered.

It is true now and will always be true that the institution which would save its life shall lose it. Shall we not hope that the church will become big enough to make organization its slave and count no tradition too sacred to sacrifice if it prevents the reign of God, even any or all of our churches in their present form.

One is tempted to point out the blight of dualism which leaves so many clergymen without integration or spiritual life. One of the most tragic experiences of the last year was that of a missionary living thirty years ago and yet trying to preach to our congregations. He knew not that life was a unit and lived in a glass house which he feared some one would destroy. Or to treat the fallacy of Dr. Charles Clayton Morrison's whole position in trying to transfer the primacy of the inner life to the outer, apparently not realizing that God is both within and without, and that what I do out there will matter little unless I have contacted Him within and that then no man can live to himself.

Our objective is the good God who can be trusted. That good God is out where people live—all people—black, white, brown, yellow, wise, simple. In Jesus we find His personality and way of life. The great need is that we as clergymen shall learn how to pray so as to bring the very life of God within our souls, and then we know we will fearlessly accept the challenge of Jesus to walk in God's way out where men live and accept only that which will bring the largest ultimate good to the greatest number of people.

CONCLUSION

My brethren of the ministry, shall we not face up to the most disturbed world in all time as integrated men who because we are God's men, fear not to live the Christ life?

My brethren of the laity, may I not confidently ask you to stand by the minister who sacrificially takes Christ's way even though it may cross your former thinking or your actual life? No greater disaster could possibly come than that we would drift further and further away from Christ and into paganism.

COMMISSION ON PASTORAL SUPPORT

Whereas, During these years of depression the support of our pastors has been greatly reduced, and often the reduced salaries are only partially paid; and

Whereas, The present increased cost of living is equal to further reduction in salaries; therefore be it

Resolved, That a commission of nine, to be composed of five ministers and four laymen, which shall be known as the Conference Commission in Pastoral Support, be raised, whose duty it shall be to seek ways of encouraging and obtaining a more adequate local support for pastors; further be it

Resolved, That the personnel of the commission be classified as follows: three for 3 years, three for 2 years, and three for 1 year, and that hereafter one third of the commission be elected annually; further be it

Resolved, That the president of the Board of Stewards and the president of the Lay Conference be members ex-officio of the commission.

M. J. PERDUE, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

I. Religious Education in the Local Church.—We commend the plan of the District Superintendents acting as directors of religious education and recommend its continuance for another year and that the Conference Board of Education give consideration and study the possibilities of securing a full-time Conference director of religious education as soon as funds are available.

We suggest that the Committee on Religious Education in the local church include in its program this year Schools of Methods and Leadership Training and the Vacation Bible School. We would again call attention to the serious situation which exists in our Vacation School program due to the fact that the Conference session comes exactly at the time we should be launching this program.

We recommend that the goal for the Rally Day offering be set at seven cents per enrolled member; one third be given to the Board of Education, Chicago; that two thirds be used for secretarial help, incidental office expenses, and promotional work on the districts; and that the districts share in proportion to the amounts raised on the several districts.

The Children's Day fund is making it possible for many Methodist youth to attend college; therefore, Children's Day should be observed in every church. District Superintendents and pastors are requested to see that this is done and an offering taken.

We commend the work of the Washington-Northern Idaho Council of Churches and Christian Education and request the council to (a) carry on advanced training courses and conduct coaching conferences for leaders, (b) develop and organize youth conferences, (c) refer the matter of financial support to the Committee on Temporal Economy of the Conference, (d) continue Miss Gertrude Apel, executive secretary, as a member of the Conference Board of Education, (e) accept as representatives of our denomination on the State Council: M. J. Perdue, J. H. Beall, J. M. Adams, C. K. Mahoney, and G. Harold Thompson.

II. College of Puget Sound.—We recommend the appointment of Mrs. Grace Cooper, R. W. Brown, and R. L. Smith as Conference visitors to the College of Puget Sound.

We further recommend that the District Superintendents arrange for institutes of church-school workers and the college furnish part of the leadership therefor.

We further recommend that the work of the college be presented by pastors or through representatives of the college and that the needs of the library be stressed.

We finally recommend that the executive committee of the Board of Education consider the religious program of the college and Wesley Foundations within the Conference looking toward a co-ordination of finances.

III. Wesley Foundation: (a) We recommend the continuance of the present unified Wesley Foundation program in the Conference, during the present year.

(b) We approve the askings of these Foundations for maintenance as recorded in the report of the Committee on Institutions and Temporal Economy.

(c) That apportionments be made to each church within the Conference to aggregate an income sufficient to meet the Conference unified Wesley Foundation budget.

(d) That said asking be included as an item in the benevolent budget for each charge, and that a systematic monthly or quarterly plan of remittance be made to the Conference Wesley Foundation Treasurer, Mr. H. H. Lewis.

(e) That the District Superintendents present the askings for Wesley Foundation, together with other approved askings, and the budget plan of payment, to the First Quarterly Conference in the churches of their respective districts, for the purpose of getting each Quarterly Conference to accept the asking and to make a designated gift to apply on the same, and that they co-operate in carrying out this program.

(f) That the receipts from apportionments and designated gifts made by individuals and churches be distributed by the Conference Wesley Foundation Treasurer as follows: 15% to the Foundation at the State College of Washington, 85% to the Foundation at the University of Washington of all monies raised in the state of Washington; that all monies raised in the state of Idaho be distributed to the Foundation at the University of Idaho.

(g) We approve the "Legion of the Cross" campaign for the purpose of securing funds for the retirement of the indebtedness of approximately $21,000 (about $8,000 now in pledges) on the Wesley Foundation at the University of Washington.

(h) In view of the fact that the student group at the State College of Washington is rapidly outgrowing the present quarters, provided by the Methodist Episcopal Church of Pullman, we approve the Foundation plan and program for the solicitation of funds looking toward the establishment and maintenance of suitable housing facilities.

(i) Inasmuch as the next General Conference will probably eliminate all educational projects from World Service receipts, it seems wise to plan more adequate and sustained support of projects of Christian education in institutions of higher learning within this Conference.

We, therefore, urge our pastors and leaders to give due emphasis to this Conference benevolence for which Conference credit is authorized.

(j) That pastors furnish the Wesley Foundation directors with the names of and information concerning students expecting to attend colleges and universities, and that the second Sunday in September be fittingly observed as Go-to-College Sunday.

W. E. CALLAHAN, Secretary.

DEACONESS HOSPITAL, WENATCHEE, WASHINGTON

This is the 19th Annual Conference report of the work of the Central Washington Deaconess Hospital, for, on the 13th day of July next, will be the twentieth full year of its existence. At that time, we plan to celebrate the twentieth birthday. The first year this hospital was operated, there were 368 patients. This last year, we had 2,227 guests.

The year past has been a very busy one. Our daily average of this fifty-bed hospital was 47 patients for every day of the 365 days. The death rate during this time was very low—2.6 per cent per hundred patients. Our total business for that 12 months was $58,190—the total cash receipts on bills receivable, $54,573.

However, the two months past have been very difficult ones financially. Last year's apple crop did not pay expenses—the orchardists in the valley are having very critical times.

A new arrangement has been made with our bonding company—they have agreed to cancel all the old interest totalling more than $3,000, and have reduced the interest from 6 to 4 per cent with the understanding that we are to pay $300 per month on principal and interest. This we have been able to do for six months and hope to be able to continue it. If this can be kept up it will automatically cancel the bonded indebtedness of $34,500, including interest and principal in eleven years.

We have been able to make many needed improvements such as painting, added equipment to the kitchen, refrigeration throughout, and furniture which was greatly needed.

We are forming groups of former patients and friends among the women folk in all of the communities from which we draw patients. They will work to promote the interests of the hospital in various ways.

Our graduating exercises of this year, held in May, for our School of Nurses, was largely attended, and the class the largest in the history of the institution—eleven graduates, but on account of the change in requirements by the State Board for Nursing Education, it will be difficult for small hospitals to maintain schools in the future.

The fruit and vegetables received from the churches and communities from the Yakima, Wenatchee, Entiat, Methow, and Okanogan Valleys, has totaled about $6,000; or, more than 10 per cent of our total gross business. This does not include work done for county cases at low rates.

Our deaconesses have served well. Miss Kiser was compelled to leave us the first of June on account of ill health. At the June meeting of our Board of Trustees, action was taken requesting the appointment of Miss Edna Newberry and Miss Bertha Reich for another twelve months, both of whom have had a good year.

We are trying to conduct this hospital in keeping with the Christian spirit of faith and service, and in keeping with the best standards of medical and surgical science, and in keeping with the best business principles and efficiency.

Christian service always has its reward in spite of difficulties and apparent failures; indeed, true Christian service does not fail. It lives on and is immortal in spite of a changing world.

A. L. HOWARTH, Superintendent.

THE COMMISSION ON FINANCE

The Commission on Finance voted to provide for the salaries of the District Superintendents by an apportionment equal to $8\frac{1}{2}\%$ of the cash salary paid to the pastor. This is the same as last year.

The maximum salary was fixed at $2,000 cash each; house rent allowance, $500, and office and travel expenses at $700. A plus differential of $200 was allowed for additional expenses of the Superintendent of the Seattle-Tacoma District.

CHAS. A. ROBBINS, Secretary.

AUDITING

We, your Auditing Committee, have received, examined, and carefully audited the following acts, and find them neatly and methodically kept, and accurate in every instance:

1. Treasurer Board of Trustees.
2. District Superintendents of the Home Mission Maintenance Fund.
3. We accept the audit of the Kinman Morris Accountants for the Deaconess Hospital at Spokane and the Central Washington Deaconess Hospital at Wenatchee.
4. We verify the report of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Minutes equalization traveling expenses.
5. Accepted and approved the report of the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees.
6. Accepted the accounts of F. A. LaViolette.

J. S. BELL, Chairman.

HOME MISSIONS

Whereas, Within recent months there has been much shifting of population, particularly in the western portion of the United States and in Alaska, thereby altering our Home Missionary responsibility and opportunities in the parts of the country affected by such shifting; therefore be it

Resolved, We would call upon the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to make a re-survey of its field in order to give to the church proper emphasis to the greatest need in the home field; and be it further

Resolved, We would call upon our District Superintendents and pastors to direct a more adequate program of missionary education in all our churches through sermons and by study classes in our various church departments.

MAEBELL G. PORTER, Secretary.

INSTITUTIONS—TEMPORAL ECONOMY

The boards and directors of the following institutions have appeared before the committee and presented their askings for next year, which have been considered and allowed as follows:

Conference Religious Education.—We recommend that one third of the Rally Day offering be retained by the General Board of Education at Chicago, and that the remaining two thirds be divided among the districts in proportion to the amounts contributed by the same, and that the District Superintendents be responsible to see that it be expended definitely for religious educational work, each Superintendent required to file with the Conference Board of Education an itemized report of the expenditures.

Washington-Northern Idaho Council of Churches and Christian Education.—We recommend the Washington-Northern Idaho Council of Churches and Christian Education to our churches and interested laymen for financial support and recommend that it be continued as one of the agencies of the Conference and funds raised for the support be credited as Conference Benevolence.

Northwest Training School.—We recommend that the Conference continue their offerings for one more year in order that the note of $1,800, payable to the bank in Seattle, may be met.

Deaconess Children's Home, Everett.—We commend the Deaconess Children's Home to the churches of the Conference for such gifts of supplies and money as they can give.

College of Puget Sound.—We congratulate the college that in these trying times it has been able to operate upon a balanced budget, and recommend that wherever practicable the pulpits be opened to representatives of the college for presentation of its work and the solicitation of gifts.

Wesley Foundation.—We recommend that the following askings be approved:

From Idaho charges for the University of Idaho, $750; from Washington charges, $7,050—to be divided as follows: for promotional work and treasurer, $300—the balance to be divided upon the ratio of 85% for the Wesley Foundation in Seattle and 15% for the Wesley Foundation in Pullman.

We approve the "Legion of the Cross" campaign for the purpose of securing funds for the retirement of the indebtedness on the Foundation at the University of Washington.

In view of the fact that the student group at the State College of Washington is rapidly outgrowing the present quarters, provided by the Methodist Episcopal Church at Pullman, we approve the Foundation plan and program for the solicitation of funds looking toward the establishment and maintenance of suitable housing facilities.

We urge that the District Superintendents and pastors give the same emphasis to the apportioned benevolences for the support of our Conference institutions as to World Service.

GRACE M. COOPER, Secretary.

THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATIONS

The committee desires to commend The Methodist Book Concern for its splendid and efficient work during these trying years.

It recommends that a drive for subscriptions to "The Christian Advocate" (Pacific edition) be made late in the fall in order to save the "Advocate" to the Pacific Northwest at the next General Conference. And it further recommends that each District Superintendent appoint two laymen and two ministers to assist in securing these subscriptions throughout the respective districts. The goal shall be one "Advocate" for every fifteen members.

It commends the Department of Church School Literature for its splendid work, but keenly feels that the literature would be even more satisfactory if it contained more references and teachings taken directly from the Bible. Also it recommends that more material be provided for the 7,000 rural church schools throughout the land. Because of the lack of efficient teachers the committee recommends that a Teachers' Training Course be provided wherever possible.

It recommends that the Epworth League Department seek to make its Epworth League topics more devotional in nature, eliminating much of the discussion on current topics that are being discussed so freely in our newspapers and magazines.

It recommends "Religion and Life" as a magazine indispensable to the work of a minister.

The committee suggests that the churches heed the admonition given by Bishop Lowe, and immediately begin laying aside funds with which to purchase the new Methodist Hymnal next fall.

Ed. A. Wolfe, Chairman.

PUBLIC REFORM

Resolved: That the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, taking a clear cut stand on the vital problem of prohibition, shall

1. Commend the work and program of the Scientific Temperance Foundation, the Anti-Saloon League, and other agencies striving for the Christian solution of the temperance problem, at the same time seeking to unify the efforts of such agencies in the interests of greater economy and effectiveness.

2. Recommend that ministers and lay leaders alike emphasize that drunkenness and intemperance are sinful, and that the human body is truly the temple of God and must not be defiled.

3. Recommend that the Department of Religious Education of the local church vigorously encourage the dissemination of information by their agencies, especially the church school, tending to reveal the true results of intemperance, thereby promoting a more intelligent attitude on this vital subject.

4. Recommend that all church members and ministers labor for the election of public officials who will support present regulatory liquor laws taking advantage of the constantly increasing public consciousness in this regard to institute new legislation and eventually re-instate prohibition in a more effective program than ever before. Be it further

Resolved: That the Conference stand firm in its denunciation of gambling in all its forms, including the racing of dogs and horses, and particularly the many so-called slot machines and game devices. Be it further

Resolved: That the Conference express its opposition to the system of compulsory military training now in effect in the higher institutions of learning and that the Conference actively support any legislative attempts to abolish compulsory military training in our colleges and universities and high schools by placing this course of study on an optional or elective basis.

While recognizing that during the last year there has been improvement in the type of motion pictures produced and exhibited, we further

Resolve: That the Conference urge pastors and laymen alike to maintain their vigilance and continue to protest against indecent pictures, or pictures which are advertised in such a manner as to suggest indegency. We are heartily in favor of the Pettingill Bill to prohibit the compulsory blind and block booking, thereby setting the exhibitors free to choose their films and consider the desires of their patrons. Be it further

Resolved: That the Conference reaffirm its stand in the matter of birth control as contained in the Journal of last year.

CHESTER L. WHITNER, Secretary.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

We wish to express our appreciation for the spirit of Christ manifested in the work of the church by the ministers and laymen of this Conference.

And call upon all Methodists to adhere more closely to the teachings and work of Christ, believing this is vital to the program of evangelism in the winning of the lost.

The object of the church is to help Christians to a higher standard of living and to help men, women, boys, and girls into a living, vital relationship with God. The church should furnish a wholesome social program to the community, especially its young people.

We deplore the modern tendency of a general breakdown socially, politically, economically, and spiritually, and believe that the church should assume the leadership in every moral reform.

We believe that the daily study of the Bible and the return of the family altar is the cure for the divorce and all other common evils.

We protest against the use of radio programs for the advertisers of beer or any other alcoholic beverage and cigarettes.

We recommend that the youth of the church be given a larger responsibility in the work, and that each charge make an effort to send at least one of its young people each year to the Annual Conference, not as a delegate but for the instruction of the youth.

We again ask for a further recognition of the necessity of our church papers. Church-school papers should have not only a high moral tone, but should help the youth to see that the highest type of living is possible only when the Holy Spirit is given complete possession of our lives.

We commend the Editors of our "Advocate" for their masterful way of handling many perplexing problems and for their manner of presenting much useful information, and we earnestly hope that every family may soon become a subscriber.

GROVER P. DAVIS, Secretary.

SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE

1. One of the chief enemies of the Gospel of Jesus Christ is human selfishness. During the year just passed we have witnessed such an orgy of human selfishness as to appall the hardest. Against this grievous sin we lift a voice of earnest protest. It is urgent upon us that we seek to deepen the sense of sin, particularly as it appears manifest in social relationships.

2. Never has the selfishness of war been more manifest. Not only in foreign lands but in America itself is felt the pressure toward war of munitions makers who have, by the investigations of the Nye Senatorial Committee, been proved to be traders in slaughter, merchants of devastation and death, conscienceless profit-makers who practice bribery, corrupt military and naval officers, use the Government as a salesman of arms to other nations, violate with impunity the laws of every country, smuggling supplies into countries in spite of embargoes, and conducting their trade in arms in violation of national laws and national agreements, seeking to enlarge their profits and enjoy luxurious living by endangering the peace of the world in such an armament race as preceded the World War and threatening again to bring disaster on an ever more stupendous scale.

3. While we view with favor the increasing body of intelligent opinion which is forming in our world against the insanity of war, we also recognize that we have not therefore eliminated war. We rejoice in that ethical growth of the modern man which indicts war as obsolete, un-Christian and anti-social. Yet we do not fail to see that, despite this spiritual advance, war will be inevitable in the conduct of world affairs unless we can change the fundamental nature of the social processes in which our human life is rooted. War is a symptom of a diseased social order, rooted in greed, selfishness, deliberate and perpetual conflict in the pursuit of one's own ends irrespective of the needs of one's own neighbors. War is not the cause of that disease; it is its consequence and effect. It is the reflection in dramatic crises of the basic conflicts underlying the world's life and smoldering beneath its surface in the normal years of peace. We must not only have the integrity to inveigh against the paganism of war, we must have the greater sagacity to go back of the symptoms to the root causes. We announce our faith that war can be removed from our world, but only at the price of a co-operative society in which there is bread and security for all people, the realization of the mind of Christ in concrete love and justice of the Christian brotherhood.

4. We recognize as aids to prevent future wars the following:

- a. A statement of the United States Government of the terms on which it would be willing to join the League of Nations.
- b. Ratification of the World Court Protocols.
- c. International and national control of the manufacture and trade in arms and munitions.
- d. That our Government take the place of leadership among the nations in energetic effort for the reduction of armaments.
- e. Maintaining our army and navy on a peace-time basis.
- f. The creation of a Department of Peace with the rank of other Cabinet departments.
- g. The annual appropriation for use through the Department of Peace a sum equal to 5 per cent of our annual appropriation for war purposes to be used in a program of education on the causes, costs, and waste of war.

5. We deeply deplore the persistent encroachment of the Japanese government on the sovereignty and racial integrity of China. Persistent militarist policies carried to their logical conclusions inevitably will lead to disastrous war with all its human suffering. The resulting loss, both economic and human, is intolerable.

6. Equally do we deplore the martial movement of the Mussolini government against Ethiopia. In the name of Christian conscience we protest that the old principle that to the strongest belong the spoils is outworn. We insist that there is a Christian way for the settlement of international disputes, and we call upon the President of the United States to take the lead in the effort to find that way.

7. With E. Stanley Jones, we understand that Jesus' utterance, "Ye cannot serve God and Mammon" translated into modern terms means, "You cannot serve God and the private profit motive." The gospel of Jesus calls for co-operation and co-operation means the end of competition. God has not left His people without a witness. We call upon the churches to make a study of the Rochdale program of consumer and producer co-operation which is an actual demonstration of the practicability of the spirit of Jesus, worked out over a period of more than ninety years to the satisfaction of many millions of people. Let us determine its usefulness as an escape from the sins of selfishness in trade and a pathway to the more abundant life.

8. Translated into present daily problems the great commands of Jesus mean the supremacy of the service motive rather than the profit motive in the acquisition and use of property on the part of both labor and capital and the most equitable division of the product of industry than can be devised, that the tiller of the soil should be encouraged in his efforts to own the land he farms and society be protected by the efficient production and conservation of fertility, that there shall be every encouragement to the organization for economic ends, particularly for co-operative sales and purchases.

9. The Golden Rule is not a dream. No more practical person than Jesus ever lived. To quote E. Stanley Jones, "We have gone as far in spirituality as we can under the competitive system. We are blocked at every turn in further individual and collective spiritual development. Christianity under this order seems an absurdity and unworkable. It is just that—under this order. But change the order to a co-operative one and Christianity will seem the only natural way to live. Anything else would be absurd and unworkable."

10. The forces of change are upon us. We may delay or divert but we cannot stop them. We condemn alike the methods of the Communist, to whom man is but an economic animal and God a delusion, and the Fascist with his appeal to force and destruction of liberty. We stand immovably upon the principles of democracy enshrined in the Constitution of the United States and the Declaration of Independence, which alone can guarantee to all men their right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. In such a day of change we need to clear those channels of communication—radio, press, and mails—which are now in the hands of those who place property rights above personal rights. Let us encourage the circulation of such publications as are free of this bias, particularly those maintained by church agencies.

11. Cognizant of the existence in this country of a free press to an extent found nowhere else in the world and, realizing the many instances of constructive services being rendered, particularly in the field of rural journalism, we deeply deplore the growing policy of publishers of larger newspapers of giving unwarranted space to crime under the guise of serving public desire rather than the more apparent motive of increasing circulation. In this policy and that of printing comic and other features subversive to the best interests of growing children we maintain that such newspapers are doing positive harm, against which we urge the registration of vigorous protests to the end that this great potential agency of education may render a service more in keeping with the highest ideals of journalism and the needs of this critical hour in an un-Christian world.

12. Finally, each individual must accept for himself the challenge of Jesus Christ to live in a world of sin as Christ lived. With Christ we must again say, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." We affirm that the Kingdom with its insistence upon brotherhood and love is to be lived and preached today. We declare, therefore, that we will stand with Christ and gladly pay the price of that stand. Then and only then can Jesus' prayer come true, "Thy Kingdom, Thy will be done!"

13. The Conference calls upon every pastor to read this report to his people and to give it the widest possible public attention. Copies of those portions which pertain to national policy are to be sent by the Secretary of the Conference to the President, to the Secretary of State, and to the Senators and Representatives of the states of Idaho and Washington.

E. T. RANDALL, Vice-President.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

We wish to record a general enthusiasm throughout the country shown the Jason Lee Centennial celebration. The tour of the Covered Wagon was a great success, under the direction of Dr. Jay S. Stowell, of the Board of Home Missions, with many assisting, including our resident Bishop, Titus Lowe.

During this year there have come to our custody several gifts of rare pioneer value; such as books of historical merit; the minutes of the early Columbia River Conference sessions, written in ledger form; two bound volumes of Journals of the earliest sessions of the Oregon Conference, collected by Dr. Isaac Dillon, and now coming from the library of Dr. S. S. Sulliger. A treasured set of saddlebags has been given to the society by Mrs. Sulliger in honor of her father, Rev. John W. Dobbs, who used them as he rode circuits in the East before coming to the Puget Sound country.

Many letters of vital interest have come to us from many places, as a result of correspondence and the interest awakened in the old Oregon Mission. We commend the Departments of History in the schools of the Pacific Northwest states for their attention to the pioneer days as affected by the churches.

The Whitman and Spaulding Centennial comes in 1936 and should realize a worthy celebration by more than the heirs of the old American Board of Foreign Missions, and this wonderful Inland Empire. Our present Conference session is in the midst of a thrilling missionary romance, with that sad martyrdom of the Whitman group. Perhaps this hallowed memory will be still more recognized among the leaders of the churches and schools.

The Historical Society stands ready to assist pastors and churches in their historical programs and urges all communities to give greater attention to the records and events of the early days. Many records are sadly in need of more careful attention, lest they be lost forever. Every church should have its painstaking historian to undertake the completest story possible in honor of our sacred pioneers. Let us not continue the evil of forgetting the Christian patriots who blazed the paths and built the first places of worship, with a sacred care for homes and institutions where Christ was honored.

JOHN A. HOFFMAN, Secretary.

TACOMA GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

This year we have walked with the Lord as never before. The years of depression have hit the Goodwill hard financially, though we have helped about the same number of people by spreading it around a little thinner. We have kept out of current expense debt and have reduced our property debt.

There have been many bright spots during the year, the brightest have been those folks who seemed to have all avenues of advance closed and only to turn to the Saviour of the world.

Chapel, Sunday services, prayer meeting, and church school are well attended.

We have tried by precept and principle to live and work at the things that bring in a better social order.

We have felt the leading of God.

H. W. MICHENER.

GENERAL CONFERENCE MEMORIALS

1. Referring the number of districts to the United Session; be it

Resolved, That the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, in United Session assembled, memorialize the General Conference of 1936 to amend paragraph 236, Sec. 2 by substituting the words "United Sessions" for the words "Annual Conference" so that the paragraph shall read:

"To form the Districts according to his judgment, after consultation with the District Superintendents, and after the number of the same has been determined by a vote of the United Sessions."

2. Referring to the duties of the Board of Education; be it

Resolved, That the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, in United Session assembled, memorialize the General Conference of 1936 to change paragraph 453, Sec. 1, so as to read:

"The Board of Education shall serve as the authorized agency of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the maintenance of Christian influences in educational institutions, for the promotion of religious education, and for the promotion of general education under Christian influence in the United States; and shall co-operate with other boards of the church in educational work under their care, seeking to make Christian ideals effective in education and culture."

3. Advocating a three-year term for lay delegates; be it

Resolved, That the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, in United Session assembled, memorialize the General Conference of 1936 that it change the term of election of lay members to the Annual Conference so that each lay member may be elected to represent the pastoral charge for three years instead of one year as at present.

4. Disapproving of certain proposed changes in the boundaries of this Conference; be it

Resolved, That the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, in United Session assembled, memorialize the General Conference of 1936 protesting and disapproving of "any proposal to separate northern Idaho from the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference" as tending to disruption and proving subversive to the common interests of the region and of the highest interests of the Kingdom.

Memorandum.—The Annual Conference did not concur in the memorials presented (a) prohibiting certain officers of the General Conference and boards from appointment to certain General Conference committees; (b) requesting the matter of paragraph 291, Sec. 2 to be made a part of the questions asked for membership; (c) referring to a certain method of apportioning the Episcopal Fund to Conferences; (d) the making of appointments on another basis than "annually."

RESOLUTIONS

We, the members of the Pacific Northwest Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, assembled at Moscow, Idaho, sincerely acknowledge our dependence upon the mercy of our heavenly Father, and our indebtedness to all who have contributed toward making this, the seventh session of our Conference, so historically and spiritually outstanding. Therefore be it

Resolved, That:

1. We tender our thanks to our pastor-host, J. Edgar Purdy, to the Methodists and all other Moscowites for their hospitality.

2. We express our appreciation to Bishop Titus Lowe for the gracious manner in which he presided over our Conference; for his attitude and thoughtfulness; and for his inspiring messages.

3. We acknowledge our indebtedness to the Moscow Chamber of Commerce and to Mr. L. E. Huff, the president, for the welcome extended us.

We are grateful for the concise and inspiring messages from our church interests; we thank the musicians and express special appreciation for the messages brought to us by Prof. W. Wayne Smith, Dr. Roy Leslie Smith, Dr. Clarence True Wilson, Dr. King D. Beach, Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, and Rev. William Bell and family.

The railroads have been most thoughtful in changing schedules; "courtesy cars" have been constantly available and the "Wild Goose" has always been ready to fly. The newspapers have been generous in the amount of space given to the Conference.

4. We further express appreciation to the University of Idaho, the school board of the city of Moscow, to the Presbyterian and Christian churches for the use of buildings and equipment.

5. We note with further interest the world-wide challenge presented to the church through the various reports. Therefore we further Benton City.—After the close of Conference C. W. Geizler was secured to care for this charge.

VII MEMOIRS

Memoirs are primarily historical. In furnishing material for their preparation please see that the following items are given exactly: full name, including maiden name of married women; date and place of birth; date and place of death; place of interment; historical summary; very brief eulogy.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN BROOKS

With the death of Rev. B. F. Brooks, D.D., on Friday, October 12, 1934, there passed to his reward one of the splendid pioneer ministers of the Puget Sound Conference. Dr. Brooks was born in Lafayette, Indiana. He attended Wabash College and studied two years at DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana. He was a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. Brother Brooks worked for a number of years for the Pullman Company as a conductor following a time spent in medical school which he was forced to leave due to lack of funds.

Dr. Brooks was related on his mother's side to the Le Sourd family. In 1884 he came to Washington, going first to the home of Dr. D. G. Le Sourd, one of the pioneers of the Puget Sound section, who was then presiding elder at Olympia. In August of 1884 the Puget Sound Conference was organized at Seattle, and one of the probationers received on trial at that first session was B. F. Brooks.

Dr. Brooks was married to Miss Jennie Chandler, in Potter County, South Dakota, June 10, 1886, but young Mrs. Brooks died on February 11, 1887, in Puyallup. On August 23, 1889, Dr. Brooks was married to Miss Emma Ault, who died in the summer of 1920. A daughter from this union died several years ago, but a son, Benjamin Franklin, Jr., survives him, as do two grandchildren.

The church gave several very responsible positions to Dr. Brooks. He was a member of the Conference Educational Society almost continuously from 1887 to 1897. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of the College of Puget Sound from 1891 to the day of his death. He was known to present students and the alumni of the college as an interested friend of young people. Dr. Brooks was Tacoma District Superintendent for six years, besides doing splendid work in a large number of parishes. He was loved everywhere he went. His spirit was young until the very last.

Funeral services were held at Epworth Church, Tacoma, with Dr. Harold O. Perry, Superintendent of the Seattle-Tacoma District, officiating. Classes were dismissed from the College of Puget Sound to permit students and faculty to attend the services.

DANIEL M. HELMICK

Following a heart attack, Rev. Daniel M. Helmick, 80, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Countryman, October 25th in Salt Lake City, Utah. He was born in Michigan in 1843 and ordained in Iowa. He married Debra Simons in Iowa in 1901, and the couple then moved to Utah. Later he became pastor at points in eastern Washington and northern Idaho. Mrs. Helmick passed away last year. Surviving are two sons:

H. G. Helmick, of Seattle; and W. F. Helmick, of Reno, Nevada; and a daughter, Mrs. Countryman.

The funeral was held from the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Salt Lake City, on Sunday, October 28th. The pastor, Rev. Rollin H. Ayres, had charge of the service, and was assisted by Dr. C. W. Hancher, Superintendent of the Utah Mission.

CHARLES M. VAN MARTER

In Ketchikan, Alaska, there died on January 7, 1935, Charles M. Van Marter. Services were held in Portland, Oregon, January 18th, conducted by Brothers J. T. McQueen and D. E. Carter. The burial was at Lebanon, Oregon.

Brother Van Marter was born in Memphis, Michigan, September 8, 1854. In 1895 he was ordained in the Northwest Iowa Conference, where he continued to preach until 1905, when he came, as an evangelist, to the Oregon Conference. In 1914 he was appointed as pastor at Seaside, Oregon, and two years later went to Ketchikan, Alaska, where he served as the spiritual leader of the community for ten years. Here he was known for his interest in the Red Cross and in social service work and for his Masonic activities.

Later he served as pastor at Montesano, Washington; Tigard, Oregon; and Yamhill, Oregon.

He is survived by his widow, Addie, and four children: Johnson Van Marter, Seattle, Washington; Verne Van Marter, Heppner, Oregon; Maurice Van Marter, Detroit, Michigan; and Claude Van Marter, Jackson, Michigan.

SPENCER S. SULLIGER

A veteran of the Cross answered "Here" when his name was called by a heavenly messenger on April 16, 1935. He had been ill for some time in his home in Tacoma, it was there he answered the call.

Dr. Sulliger was born in Ottawa, Ontario, eighty-one years ago. As a young man he prepared himself for medicine, but in 1891 he was admitted to the Southwest Iowa Conference; in 1898 he transferred to the Puget Sound Conference where he began a remarkable ministry.

He served but two pastorates; Garden Street, Bellingham, and Kent. However, for twenty-three years he served as Presiding Elder and Superintendent of the Centralia, Bellingham, Tacoma, and Vancouver Districts without a break between terms.

He was twice married. His first wife is buried in Bellingham. Some twenty years ago he married Rose Dobbs, daughter of the man whose name heads the list of Puget Sound Conference "Honored Dead." She survives him.

In 1900 he was made chaplain of the 2nd Regiment, Washington National Guard. He served with his regiment on the Mexican Border in 1916 and also during the World War.

He was nationally noted for his knowledge of roses; last June he was made president of the American Rose Society.

His body is laid away in Mountain View Burial Park, Tacoma.

JOHN W. KERN

The Rev. John W. Kern, age 83, died Sunday morning, May 26th, at the family home in Bellingham, Washington. He had suffered a paralytic stroke on May 15th from which he failed to rally.

Born in Ohio in 1852 he moved with his family to Nebraska in 1869, and on December 25th, 1881, he married Miss Viola Conner of that state. To this union six children were born, three died in infancy and a son, Francis, passed away in 1920 following his discharge from the United States Navy at the close of the World War. Mrs. Kern passed away at LaConner in 1927. In 1932 he was married to Mrs. Luella Walker, of Bellingham, a friend of many years' standing to himself and Mrs. Kern.

In 1893 Mr. Kern entered the ministry in Nebrasak, from whence he moved in 1900 to the state of Washington. Among his pastorates which he served faithfully and well were Issaquah, Bothell, Mt. Vernon, Lynden, Ronald, Des Moines, and LaConner, his last charge.

Funeral services were held at the Kern Funeral Chapel in LaConner on Wednesday, May 29th. Assisting the Rev. Geo. W. Frame, a family friend of many years, in conducting the funeral, were the Revs. Messrs, H. J. Wood, H. C. Kohr, R. T. Holland, and H. F. Pemberton, District Superintendent. The surviving relatives are: Mrs. Kern, the widow; Mrs. S. T. Combs, of Seattle, a daughter; Coy R. Kern, of LaConner, a son; four brothers, a sister, five grandchildren, and one great-grandchild. Interment was made at the Pleasant Ridge Cemetery.

SANFORD P. BROKAW

"Simple, sincere, utterly devoted, and loyal, a real leader in his ministry in all the charges he served." with such words does one characterize this man of God.

He was born near Walkerton, Stalk County, Indiana, October 8, 1851, and entered into rest at his home in Auburn, Washington, June 4, 1935. He joined the Georgia Conference and entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1877. The following year on December 5th, he was united in marriage with Mary Leah Smith, of Elijay, Georgia. She died May 1, 1927. Later he married again and his present wife survives him. Also surviving are two daughters: Mrs. B. H. Hamm and Mrs. M. F. Lawler, of Auburn; one son, Sanford E., of Seattle; and five grandchildren.

Brother Brokaw came to Washington in 1890, and was active in the Puget Sound Conference until he retired in 1911.

Funeral services were held in the Auburn Church on June 8 with Rev. William Park in charge. He was assisted by Rev. H. W. Michener, and all of the pastors of the Protestant churches of Auburn. His body was laid away in the Auburn cemetery.

He served the following charges in the Puget Sound Conference: Clark County Circuit, Bay Center, Winlock, Kelso, Bashon, Gig Harbor, Sidney, Buckley, Willapa.

BENJAMIN WILLIAM RINEHART

Brother Rinehart was born in Shelby County, Ohio, December 8, 1858. His wife, Olive L. Carey, whom he married on August 26, 1880, died September 17, 1891, after which he came West as a missionary to the Indians from the Oklahoma Conference. Three children survive the first marriage: Carl Rinehart, Philadelphia; Mrs. Ruby Harris, Nooksack, Washington; Mrs. Anna Davidson, Sidney, Ohio.

On March 22, 1893, he was married to Mittie S. Burton, to which union three children were born: Pearl Rinehart and Mrs. Jesse Edmund, of Seattle; and Mrs. Nellie Bristol, of Everett.

In 1903 he became a member of the Puget Sound Conference, which he served for thirty-two years. While serving at Coupeville his wife departed this life.

While serving at Fall City he married for the third time. His wife, nee Mrs. Gertrude Robillard, and his step-daughter, Jeanette, also survive him.

There is no human standard for measuring the results of his more than forty years of service in the Methodist ministry.

His body was buried at Custer, Washington.

MRS. NELLIE McINTIRE SEELY

Mrs. Bowser was a devoted mother and wife to her husband, her children and her grandchildren. Her good services as a minister's wife never failing her, she was a gracious friend and a winsome hostess.

Never strong in body, her health broke two years ago with a paralytic stroke, from which she suffered greatly and rapidly declined. She leaves her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Genevieve Lord; and a sister, Maude Kenny, all of Pasadena.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Claude E. Smith, associate pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Pasadena. Interment was made in the Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, California, beside the graves of her beloved children, Vincent Eril Bowser and Ethel Maude Hoagland.

Directions for Students and Instructors

Read the Discipline, paragraphs 201 to 204, inclusive. Members of the Board of Ministerial Training and those taking the course of study should follow the Directions and Helps.

Along with the subject matter in papers submitted in examinations and written work, the English used and the neatness of the papers presented should be considered in grading the work.

Note: The names of the Examiners assigned to the various courses may be obtained by correspondence with the Chairman of the Board.

Local Preachers and Instructors should read paragraphs 161 to 172, inclusive; paragraph 201, sections 1 and 7; paragraphs 203 and 204.

Rules Governing Conference Examinations

1. The time and place of taking examinations may be arranged through correspondence with the Chairman of the Board.

2. (a) Written work on the study books shall be in the hands of the Examiners not less than two weeks before the examinations are written. (b) Written work on the collateral reading books must be in the hands of the instructors not less than two weeks before the time of the Conference.

3. Each instructor shall submit grades to the Registrar not later than fifteen days after receiving papers.

4. Each undergraduate shall pay an annual fee of fifty cents to cover postage and other expenses.

5. Persons admitted on probation who are exempt from examinations on the course of study by reason of having graduated from an approved School of Theology shall present a thesis on some subject agreeable to the Board of Ministerial Training of the Conference each year of his two years of probation.

Examination of Local Preachers

1. Examinations shall be governed by rules similar to those which govern the examinations of undergraduates in the Conference Course of Study. (See above, and also see the Discipline, paragraph 201, section 1, 14th line.)

2. The books of the course of study are assigned to members of the Board of Ministerial Training. Subjects and texts which appear in both the course for undergraduates and the course for local preachers are assigned to the same individual. Correspondence with the members of the Board is not only a privilege, but is necessary.

A committee of five was ordered to study and make recommendations to the Conference on the six Constitutional Amendments presented for action. The members are: Chas. A. Robbins, F. L. Pickett, Francis Tolles, F. A. Hazeltine, O. E. McLaughlin.

Adjournment.

The Lay Conference reconvened at 8.30 A. M., June 20, 1935, with President Foster, presiding. Devotions consisted of a hymn and a prayer by Brother Francis Tolles.

The minutes of the last year's meetings were read and approved.

The following Committees were authorized and appointed:

Credentials—Fred Levering, R. B. Walker, Frank L. Morgan, Mrs. Grace Cooper, M. C. Hazen.

Resolutions—O. E. McLaughlin, Seth L. Morford, Robert Carey, Mrs. Grace Sherman, Dr. Paul W. Sweet.

Nominations—F. A. Hazeltine, Roy W. Haskins, Garret Terwinkle, J. M. Moore, L. N. Dews.

The Credentials Committee report, as follows, was adopted and the members seated as official members of the Conference: Puget Sound District, 16 members; Seattle-Tacoma District, 26 members; Spokane District, 26 members; Vancouver District, 23 members; Walla Walla District, 26 members; total, 117 members.

There was some question raised as to the present organization, and in order to remove any doubt of its legality, it was duly voted to elect the following officers to serve for this session: Chapin D. Foster, President; Fred Levering, Vice-President; Chas. A. Robbins, Secretary; Mrs. Grace Cooper, Treasurer.

This action was taken after a committee was appointed and instructed to confer with the presiding Bishop.

A moment of silent prayer was suggested which put the members in a better frame of mind for deliberate action.

A list of tellers was appointed consisting of: George W. Firth, A. W. Novik, John Miller, A. A. Burson, S. G. Thero.

The following were nominated as candidates for election as delegates to the General Conference of 1936: Chas. A. Robbins, P. M. Snider, F. L. Pickett, Chapin D. Foster, G. Harold Thompson, Mrs. Rufus Woods, Joseph B. Hall, Robert Wentsch, Roy W. Haskins, John Hazen, W. Wayne Smith.

Each candidate was given two minutes to speak before the Conference.

Upon the report of the first ballot, 101 votes were cast, making 52 necessary for election—each ballot bearing 5 names: W. Wayne Smith received 69 votes, F. L. Pickett received 64 votes, Chas. A. Robbins received 62 votes, Chapin D. Foster received 61 votes; and these four were declared elected. As Mrs. Woods and Mr. Hall each received 53 votes, it was necessary to cast four other ballots to elect the fifth delegate. Mr. Hall received 57 votes and was declared elected. On the first ballot for alternates, Mrs. Woods, Roy W. Haskins, and P. M. Snider were elected in the order named.

The West Wisconsin Conference presented an Amendment to the Constitution which, when voted upon, received 12 affirmative votes and 83 negative.

Amendments to the Constitution proposed by the Rock River Lay Conference were voted on as follows: No. 1, 90 ayes, 1 no; No. 2, 90 ayes, 1 no; No. 3, 88 ayes, 1 no; No. 4, 1 aye, 88 noes; No. 5, 2 ayes, 86 noes.

The bills of the Secretary for supplies and postage amounting to $7.95 were allowed and ordered paid.

A memorial to General Conference, asking for the substitution of United Sessions for Annual Conference in the last line of Section 2 of paragraph 236 was adopted and referred to the United Sessions.

After luncheon the Conference voted to adopt the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we express our admiration for the sacrificial spirit, devotion and efficiency shown by B. N. Hicks during the past ten years while acting as the Superintendent of the Washington Anti-Saloon League. Battling against heavy odds, he not only defeated weakening amendments to our state prohibition law, but improved it until it went down in the general wet landslide. He has shown real statesmanship and has been constructive and wise in his plans.

2. We, the Lay Conference of the 1935 Pacific Northwest Annual Conference, held in Moscow, Idaho, express our appreciation and gratitude for the good will and courtesy shown us by the Presbyterian and Christian churches by permitting us the use of their buildings and equipment during our sessions.

A memorial to the General Conference of 1936 regarding the change of paragraph 453, section 1, was adopted and referred to the United Sessions.

It was voted to take up a collection to cover expenses. This resulted in receipts of $13.60, which added to the balance from last year gave a total of $21.20. After deduction of the secretary's expense of $7.95, and 50 cents for a speaker's dinner, a balance of $12.75 remained.

Mr. Firth reported for the Transportation Committee on prorating of travel expenses, and the committee was continued for another year, but to be composed of five members, one from each district.

The Nominating Committee reported and the following officers were elected for the coming year: G. Harold Thompson, President; M. C. Hazen, Vice-President; Chas. A. Robbins, Secretary; Mrs. Allie B. Rhodes, Treasurer.

Adjournment.

At 2.30 P. M., June 21, 1935, the Lay Conference reconvened and voted, by motion duly made and seconded, to adopt a new Rules of Order which will govern the body.

The Committee on Ministerial Support held over from last year, reported through Mr. Morford, and the report was adopted and referred to the United Sessions. A second report was defeated.

A vote of thanks was given Dr. King Beach for his inspiring address to the Laymen at the banquet on Thursday evening.

A resolution was presented requiring an annual assessment on each church to form a travel fund for Lay Conference members. This resolution was referred to the Transportation Committee.

The Nominating Committee had failed to nominate the second vice-president with the the other officers, so being duly voted on, Grant Hunt was elected as Vice-President.

The Committee on Men's Work was continued for another year, this committee to be composed of one member from each district.

Mr. Ashue, of White Swan, presented the Indian evangelist, Mr. Edward J. Sam, who spoke briefly on the needs of his people.

The new officers were introduced and seated.

A vote of thanks and appreciation was given the retiring officers and the committees for the devotion and zeal shown in the work of the Conference.

Adjournment.

G. HAROLD THOMPSON, President.

CHAS. A. ROBBINS, Secretary.

VI REPORTS

AUDITING COMMITTEE

All accounts received by the Auditing Committee have been found correct. The following were received: District Superintendents; Hospitals; Treasurer Board of Trustees; Secretary-Treasurer Transportation Committee; Executive Secretary Conference Claimants; Treasurer Conference Board of Stewards; and Conference Treasurer.

Several errors have been found in prorating Ministerial Support; in most cases the pastors involved have agreed to make the necessary adjustment.

JOHN S. BELL, Chairman.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

The Commission on Finance voted to provide for the salaries of the District Superintendents by an apportionment equal to 8½% of the cash salary paid to the pastor of each charge.

Under the new rules of the Conference, the Treasurer was ordered to disburse the total receipts of the District Superintendents' Fund to the Superintendents except the odd dollars, equalizing the salaries of the Superintendents after a differential of $200 for the Superintendent of the Seattle-Tacoma District, and $50 for the Superintendent of the Spokane District.

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

Read by Roy L. Sprague

Bishop Lowe and Brethren:

The District Superintendents recognize that the year through which we have just passed has been one of deep waters for some of our ministerial homes. Thirteen members of our Conference have entered into the life "over there." Voices once heard in telling tones in our Conference sessions are silenced forever. Suitable memorial services have already been held, so we pause only to repeat that while they are gone from our sight, they leave with us the fragrance of life lived in the eternal hope. Their influence abides with us always.

The various institutions of the Conference will report through the respective Committees and Boards of the Conference. Your Superintendents have given careful attention to any such operating within their respective districts, and collectively the Cabinet has rendered such supervisory service to these institutions as the needs and opportunities made possible.

We are justly proud of the various efforts put forth by the people called Methodists to make their contribution to the fields of Education, Hospitalization, Rehabilitation, and Character Construction. These agencies and institutions operating in their own corporate entity are channels through which we are seeking to render service to humanity in the name of our Master. There is a caution, however, which we wish to enter. We must carefully prepare any resolutions concerning financing such institutions so that we shall not assume any responsibility which we do not intend to assume. The recent decision in the Oregon case, by which some $93,000 has been fastened upon the Conference as such, should make us cautious. This does not mean that we should do any less for these institutions than we have always intended to do, but it does mean utmost care in framing resolutions of approval which may be interpreted as the assumption of financial responsibility.

This report will make no attempt to enter statistics for the year. While we feel that the year has been better in many regards, any statement would be guess as against the official reports which the Statistician and Treasurer will be presently bringing to us.

Nor can such a composite report even mention important high points in the work of the several districts. In many cases substantial improvements and repairs in property interests have taken place. Some buildings have been completed, notably at Arlington, where the church, long under construction, was dedicated Sunday, June 14. There have been a number of important debt readjustments. Among these we mention Pasco, Toppenish, Aberdeen. Some substantial payments have been made at Chehalis and Kelso. Bethany, Tacoma, and Port Angeles are giving some concern at present. Most notable, of course, in the line of payment and adjustment of debts is this University Temple in which the area participated under the leadership of that genius of church finance, Dr. Walter Torbet, Western representative of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

In the days of separate district reports, we used to hear elaborate descriptions of country, climate, crops, and industries of each district. We refrain at this point, but we are constrained to mention the extensiveness of the Conference geographically. The Pacific Northwest Conference comprises the state of Washington and the Panhandle of Idaho. Alaska will be formed into a mission before our next Conference session. We sometimes fail to realize that the state of Washington alone contains a greater area than does all the New England states together, and the Panhandle is no small bit of territory. In this section is a variety of resources—agriculture, lumber, minerals, fisheries, etc. When one looks at the geographical size and considers the vast distances involved, the difficulties of administration are clearer. Sometimes one hears comparisons made between the number of charges on a district here and the number on the Eastern districts. True, some Eastern Conferences place seventy to eighty charges in one district; but frequently these large districts have no distance greater than fifty miles for the Superintendent to travel. Compare the distance from Goldendale to Aberdeen; Orofino to Ellensburg; Bonners' Ferry to Oroville, where hundreds of miles are involved with these fifty-mile drives of Eastern Superintendents, and it is soon seen that number of charges cannot be the sole factor in determining the district boundaries. Nor should we forget that train schedules, once fully adequate, are now next to valueless for supervisory purposes, and hence passes have much less value. Very much use must be made of the automobile. This Superintendent drives from two to three thousand miles each month. Time and expense involved in this are enormous. Any suggestion concerning district boundaries should have these facts in mind, and mere comparisons should not be the determining factor in decisions made.

A report should probably deal with the activities of those reporting. So an attempt is made to visualize the activities of the Superintendents, collectively and individually. In some way the notion has gotten into some minds that the District Superintendent is a gatherer of statistics. True, some routine questions are asked in formal Quarterly Conferences which deal with statistics; but the purpose of such questions is to get the total task of the local church before the responsible members of that local church, and not for the edification of the Superintendent. More and more the church is seeing that the real work of the District Superintendent is supervision, administration, and promotion, and not gathering statistics, nor in performing certain rites and ordinances of the church. The last General Conference rewrote the paragraph on the duties of the District Superintendent, a study of which rewriting will show that it is the intention to have him devote his time to more important functions of his office.

Reference was made to the institutions of our Conference. Membership on the Boards of Trustees and Committees of these institutions demand much of the District Superintendent's time. He finds that he is not simply a Superintendent of one district, but that rather he is one of a group of Superintendents of the Conference; and the duties thus devolving upon him take a real portion of his time.

Probably the personnel problem is the chief task of the Superintendent. This is not crowded into one week at Conference as some suppose, but takes time throughout the entire year. Visits to theological schools; interviews with men seeking locations; study of the aptitudes and abilities of preachers; study of the tasks and opportunities of churches; meeting emergency problems of the district—all these abide day and night. No doubt, being human, the Cabinet errs at times in judgment; but if three years at this task has shown this Superintendent anything, it has shown that personal prejudice occupies a very small place in the making of decisions.

There are four factors taken into consideration in recruiting the ministry—Passion, Personality, Aptitude, and Training. This last, being more easily measured, is sometimes put more prominently forward; but be it recorded that no amount of training can substitute for the other three items. We shall continue to make steady progress in the training of ministers; but never shall we allow this item to displace the others. Professional and prefunctory attitudes toward the great human factors involved in the ministry can never win the day. We remember that we have been brought into the ministry through the preaching of warm evangelistic messages, and this fact must still characterize Methodist ministry. When we lose our passion it is time to seek a revival, or other jobs.

In discussing the personnel problem, we are reminded that ending a career is as important a factor in building our ministry as beginning it. So retirement and recruiting go hand in hand. Wisely we have set the permissive age of retirement at sixty-five years. Some of us may be able to continue longer and ought to do so. Thirty-five or forty-five years of clean ministry in the church of God are not to be ruthlessly pushed aside in favor of inexperience; but, however, for most of us the age of sixty-five marks a fine point at which to conclude a life of activity when normally we shall have some years in which to enjoy a readjusted daily routine. At this point the Superintendent may be a kindly advisory brother. Again, it may happen that some men have fulfilled their ministry at a younger age, and, rather than retiring, should in the vocabulary of early Methodism "cease to travel." It is no easy time for either Superintendent or pastor if this subject has to be approached, but when it does it is a grave concern of the District Superintendent. The matter of recruiting, of retiring, and, if need be, of stopping before normal years of retiring arrive, are vital matters to the church. The success of the Cabinet at this point is the success of the church, and failure is tragic! To fit men and churches to each other is a supreme task. Nor should the laymen forget that this concerns the attitudes and qualifications of the churches as much as it does the ministers.

The District Superintendent is the morale officer of his district. It is his constant aim to lead both ministers and church officers in the pleasant paths of confidence both in their ability to do the tasks ahead; and more, into the high confidence in the all-sufficiency of the Christ whom we serve and whose we are! "He is able," and in His name, so are we!

The task of the Superintendency may be grouped under headings of four M's—Management—i. e., Administration; Missions—i. e., Organizing and promoting the work of the field; Manpower—i. e., Recruiting, placing, and retiring of personnel; Morale—i. e., contributing to that sense of utter confidence so necessary to the ultimate victory of our cause and our Christ.

Our Conference is a decidedly home mission field.

The problem of home missions should receive the earnest consideration of the Conference Board and of the churches of the Conference. We approve the idea of eliminating competition, but we are by no means convinced that the method of withdrawal of the missionary appropriation by the Home Board will accomplish this desired end. We believe that the whole field should be studied by an unbiased committee, and upon their recommendation, consolidations, or withdrawals should be made. It is time for a resurvey of our field and a determination as to which church should remain in a given location.

Our Conference presents all types of missionary need. We have the city, with its conglomerate of citizenship and its unchurched masses; we have the transition fields, where the changing industrial conditions have left their wake of heart-breaking disappointment; we have the ghost towns, where mills have gone and small agriculture is just getting a foothold; we have our large open spaces, with sparsely-settled sections. Too, we have the race problem—American Indians, Japanese, Filipinos, and certain Europeans with warped atheistic ideas. We have that company of westward wanderers who have been seeking fortune until the last Western field has been reached, and beyond them lies only the Pacific Ocean. These conditions challenge us. The solution of these many problems will lay the foundations for future civilization.

We have churches burdened with debt, and we have inadequacy of plant in other thinking of religious people. In the days of the Scripture writers the emphasis was placed on the fact that "Wine is a mocker; strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is NOT wise." Today we are facing the fact that our whole nation was deceived by strong drink and BY THE LURE OF TAXES which it was said accompanied the traffic.

Well-meaning people have said, "Let it alone and it will become so obnoxious that the people will naturally revolt and restore prohibition." This, too, may be one of the deceptive lures of the traffic; for be it never forgotten that alcohol is a habit-forming narcotic which used for a time to fasten itself upon the victim that escape is impossible. The subtle propaganda through press, screen, and radio is calculated to catch unsuspecting victims while youth is reckless, and then with a band of victims command the situation. There is but one attitude which the church can take to this destructive agency, and that is ABSOLUTE HOSTILITY TO THE END. We may die in the fight, but we must never give up!

The agency through which we may best fight this evil is not wholly clear. Our Conference experiment with the Northwest Temperance Association is doing all that we could have demanded under the conditions; but the time is at hand when we must greatly strengthen our forces. Our own Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals has recently changed leaders. Until changes in policy, if any, are known, we cannot say whether this will aid us or not. The program and personnel of the Anti-Saloon League in our state do not seem to give us much satisfaction as an agency through which we may function. We recommend that the Conference Committee having this in charge bring to us programs and plans for a vigorous warfare against the liquor traffic.

World Peace.—These days when we had expected we would be basking in the sunlight of world peace, we find ourselves in the grip of war terrors. Mars has mounted the saddle and seeking to ride rough shod over the imaginations of the people. All nations have dealt with treaties as "scraps of paper." It is for us as a nation to find a way by which we may throw our influence on the side of international accord since political prejudice seems to demand that we do not function through any channel now established.

Human Greed.—Linked closely with the evils of war and drink is the fact of greed in the human heart. Laws and social situations may aid or hinder in the program of localities which handicap us as greatly as the burden of debt. The question arises whether we may not inaugurate a Conference-wide program by which debts may be eliminated and needy communities assisted. And in the same thought we suggest that with present limitation of our Home Board a sustentation fund for the Conference may be a necessity.

Probably none of our mission fields offers greater opportunity than the field of childhood and youth. Here vast areas of life await our action. Frankly, the plan of District Superintendent direction of the program of religious education is not meeting the needs of the field. Our Conference young people's program is not meeting the needs adequately. The Board of Education of our Conference should consider the matter of a co-ordinated program of religious education within the Conference, including a program for Epworth League Institutes.

The Interdenominational Council, under the leadership of Miss Gertrude Apel, is a worth-while agency in this field, and every consistent means should be used to co-operate with this agency. However, we must not thereby shirk our own denominational duties. We may well leave the matter of community leadership training and promotion to the interdenominational agency; but the detailed tasks of particular training of our own leaders remains the work of each local church.

A practical problem of reporting our church-school activities presents itself in the fact that there is no unanimity in policy. In matter of enrollment, some follow the college catalog method of counting all who have registered during the year, beginning anew each fall. Others follow the public-school method of dropping a pupil after three or four absences. It seems that the report seeks to know how many lives have been brought under the influence of the school during the year. If so, then the first method is right. The average attendance report will tell the weekly contacts made; but here also some report for the total year while others drop out the summer months. The Board should bring to us a report which we may all follow.

Agencies and Objectives in Reform.—Historically, the temperance reform has occupied an outstanding place in the human betterment, and so it is incumbent upon the followers of Jesus Christ to use every reasonable means for the creation of such social and economic conditions as will aid the development of Christlike individual living. In this matter the whole moral front must be pushed forward together, and not a sector here and there, lest the enemy form a great pincer-jaw and nip off the advance.

Evangelism.—This brings us to the statement that the supreme task of the church is the transformation of human nature. We do not decry any movement nor criticize any forward-looking persons who are willing to pioneer in any field of moral advance; but we point to the fact that there is no other agency save the church, which is standing for this transformation of life so that there may be a foundation upon which reforms may rest. However accomplished, and by whatever technique, we must never forget that evangelism stands first among the activities of the church. This means religious education with an evangelistic objective. It means the ordinary social life of the group planned with an evangelistic objective. It means preaching for a verdict. It means a ministry with a passion. It means, for Methodists, an experiential note and emphasis which will be unmistakable. The year 1938 marks the two-hundredth anniversary of Wesley's Aldersgate experience. The General Conference Commission on Evangelism is leading in a fitting observance of this, and we should follow the lead of the Commission in every possible way. Our approach should not be devious, but rather inclusive. We must remember that the total task has the object in view of transforming both individual and society.

World Service.—Basic to all this—evangelism, reform, social reconstruction, etc.—is a clear vision of the total situation. Wesley had this. He said, "The world is my parish." This slogan gave the General Conference the starting point for the "World My Parish" Movement, in which we shall seek to secure ONE MILLION UNITS of one dollar per month for World Service. Such a movement will restore missionaries to the field and be worthy of the church of our choice and love. No point in the General Conference was higher than the moment when our own Bishop Lowe led the Conference to a realization of the great privileges and responsibilities in this World Service advance. Then and there the Conference put in cash and pledges over $16,000. We have the conviction that the church, which is not missionary, is NOT Christian. Seeking to save itself is the surest and quickest route to destruction for the church. Our personal and collective future is at stake in our fidelity to the Master's command, "Go ye and make disciples of all nations."

We recommend that our Conference take this movement seriously and lay plans to meet our portion of this goal. We can take our share if we make an intelligent approach to the task. The Conference World Service Council should formulate a program and submit it for our approval. Then we should intelligently cultivate the field for the objectives sought.

Pension Fund.—Mention has been made of the intimate relation between recruiting the ministry and the retirement time. The comfortable retirement of ministers can be accomplished only when a reasonable security for old age is assured. We covet this security for all the aged of our land. However, the church, through its properly constituted authority, recognizing this intimate relation between recruiting and retiring, has graciously promised this security, and in return therefor has exacted very rigid conditions for the minister, making it practically impossible for him to secure for himself an adequate means for protection in his old age. He has to go where sent; to whatever type of community he is sent; live under conditions not of his own making, and frequently move against his desire. He must quit when told, or when the date arrives. We have made notable progress in the past as a church toward redeeming the promises made to the young men when they entered the ministry, but we remind the Conference that we have recorded our intention not to engage in any general movement for funds nor campaign the church until this cause has had an adequate presentation to our people. We call upon the Conference to reaffirm this intention. Also we call upon the Board of Conference Claimants to set up a plan by which we shall not delay longer than one more year the preparation for such a presentation to our Conference.

Area Expense Fund.—Most of the expense of the episcopal supervision is carried by the Episcopal Fund; but there are items of necessary expense for which no provision is made. Every other area in the United States has some form of Area Expense Fund. We appreciate the fact that up to the present our Bishop has been considerate of us and has himself paid expense which rightfully belonged to the area. It is estimated that about $1,000 is needed for this fund. We recommend that the Committee dealing with apportionments arrange for our Conference to take its equitable share of this fund.

Adequate Financial Plan in the Local Church.—Church budgets cannot be uniform, but they may be adequate. An adequate church budget is one in which the resources of the parish are so discovered, and the estimates formulated, that each person in the contributing constituency will give according to his ability. Every church can have an adequate plan if it will. In this matter a skillful and sympathetic pastor will lead his officary to successes. It may sound crude to say that the "pastor is the business manager of his concern"; but what that means in the business world is true in the church. There are three budgets which must have consideration: the local budget, the World Service budget, the Conference benevolence budget. Proportional attention to each of these will give a well-rounded business program for the local church.

To bring about this adequate financial program, each district will set up its own scheme. The Conference Commission on Pastoral Support should be continued, and whatever co-operation can be given the local church by this Commission or the district organization is offered the officary as they plan their campaigns.

The subdistrict organizations which have been in vogue among us was given legal standing by the General Conference. With a wise leader, or chairman, this group organization may be a valuable factor in finance, religious education, and evangelism. The experiment worked out by some of the churches of the Yakima Valley should be studied in this matter of co-operative work.

Recapitulation.—We gather the various recommendations of this report together briefly in conclusion:

I. Finance:

1. Set up a World Service goal and plan in keeping with the "World My Parish" Movement.
2. Make as adequate provision as possible for our Conference agencies.
3. Arrange for the Conference to accept its share of headquarters expense.
4. Suggest methods and means for more adequate support of the local budget.
5. Take account of the situation with regard to debts within the Conference and study means for Conference-wide participation in their liquidation.
6. Study the advisability of a Conference or District Sustentation Fund to supplement salaries where the local church is unable to meet the minimum required.

II. Missionary Resurvey:

1. The Conference Board of Home Missions should bring to the Conference a plan for adequate resurvey of the missionary needs and opportunities of our Conference.
2. There should be a Committee on Comity set up under the Conference which will give an adequate agency through which we may effect satisfactory federations where eliminating overlapping is possible.

III. Christian Education in the Local Church:

1. The attention of the Board of Education is called to the necessity of a more vigorous pressing of the program of local Christian education and of the need for rehabilitating the Rally Day offering.
2. This same Board is requested to formulate a more adequate program for our young people, especially with regard to institutes.
3. A rule should be formulated to be followed with regard to counting the enrollment in our church schools, and with reporting average attendance in our statistical columns.

IV. Social Reform and Social Progress:

1. In any pronouncements by the Conference Committees dealing with these various questions, the pronouncements of the General Conference of 1936 should be carefully studied.
2. The Committee is urged to prepare definite recommendations concerning the fight against the liquor traffic, and recommend ways and means for supporting the program this Conference may adopt.

V. Evangelism:

1. Active participation in the Aldersgate observance should be planned.
2. Co-operation in the National Preaching Mission and carrying this to every church of the Conference should be arranged.

3. Attention should be called to the fertile field of evangelism offered by the youth of our church and programs formulated to meet our needs in this field.

With these concrete recommendations we bring this report to a close. However, the reader craves the privilege of expressing his profound sense of gratitude to Almighty God for all the privileges accorded him. Both the Heavenly Father and the church have been exceedingly kind, and with this sense of appreciation he reads this report today.

ROY L. SPRAGUE.

DEACONESS HOSPITAL, SPOKANE, WASHINGTON

Robert Warner, Superintendent

This being the fortieth anniversary of the establishment of the Deaconess Hospital, we present as a very brief report an interesting statement recently prepared by our certified accountants, Kinman-Morris & Company. They say:

"You will no doubt be interested to see the progress made by the Deaconess Hospital during the past thirteen years, during which time we have had the pleasure of serving you as your accountants, and have submitted regular monthly progress statements in order that Dr. Warner and your Board of Trustees may maintain control of the income and expenditures.

	December 31, 1935	December 31, 1922	Increase
Net worth.....	$442,629.12	$316,158.01	$126,471.11

"The foregoing progress statement discloses an increase of $126,471.11 in the net worth for the thirteen-year period after allowing $170,222.50 for depreciation.

"The annual charges against net income for depreciation did not require actual expenditure of funds; therefore, if the accumulated provision for depreciation were disregarded, it will be seen that the actual addition to your net worth has been $296,693.61, which is indeed a sizable sum.

"As citizens of Spokane, we feel we should be proud of the Deaconess Hospital, and certainly your Board of Trustees and management are to be highly commended for the remarkable stability of the institution. We doubt very much if you can find many hospitals which have so few endowment funds that have been able to expand and at the same time maintain its current and funded indebtedness within the limits indicated in your instance. The present bid price of the Deaconess bonds is in itself a tribute to the successful management of your institution."

Respectfully submitted,

KINMAN & MORRIS.

By: A. Wm. Morris,

Certified Public Accountant.

The above summing up says more in a few words than we could in many. Above all, this, the greatest achievement, is the many who have found eternal life as well as healing for the body.

Respectfully,

DEACONESS HOSPITAL,

Robert Warner, Superintendent.

WENATCHEE DEACONESS HOSPITAL

The three years with this task have been trying and difficult, yet very interesting and altogether too short for the work at hand.

At the beginning of last fall financial conditions with us were noticeably better, and the load was a bit lighter. In October the severe freeze came.

causing a loss of one third of the apple crop. This, coupled with low prices, gave us a setback.

For several months following we had a deficit in running expenses. However, the past few months we have had a surplus in income over the running expenses.

In spite of these reverses, the year shows up well. We have had more than one hundred patients over last year and a gain of sixty births. We have had a filled house most of the time, and on several occasions we asked St. Anthony's Hospital to take patients for whom we had no room. For two years we have had a daily average of forty-seven patients in a fifty-bed hospital. This, experienced superintendents declare, is a very unusual record of bed capacity. This year a number of patients came to our hospital from Canada.

Our death rate during the year was low (2.8). The average number of days per patient stay was lowered from eleven days to 9.8, and the cost per day per patient was reduced to $3.20 in spite of increased operating expenses. Also during the year a $1,000 bond was canceled. This was one of the bonds of the total of $33,000. The interest on our bonded indebtedness, reduced from 6% to 4%, is paid to date.

More than $1,000 worth of new equipment has been purchased and paid for. Included in these items is a new delivery table of the latest design, giving us as well an equipped delivery room as is found anywhere.

Vouchers were given to our pastors in Yakima, Wenatchee, Antiat, Methow, and Okanogan Valleys for $800 for fruit and cash.

The twentieth anniversary of the founding of the hospital was celebrated in July. The afternoon and evening program took place on our beautiful and spacious lawns. This was well attended, and as a birthday remembrance we received several hundred dollars in money and supplies.

In May of this year we graduated six students from our school of nurses.

We have had many opportunities of giving spiritual council to the sick. So we have had many things of encouragement. We rejoice in confidence shown by the people generally as is evidenced by the large number of patients asking for admittance and the good will of the doctors.

Old debts, a heavy amount of free work we are called upon to do, and the need of more room are our main problems. Plans are under way to rearrange the space in our home for nurses which will furnish eight or ten additional beds.

Our two deaconesses—Miss Bertha Rich and Miss Edna Newberry—have the institution at heart and have served accordingly, and their return is requested.

We need to think less these days of what we have lost and more of what we have left. And as we think of these things—soil, water, scenery, climate, schools, churches, hospitals—we catch the spirit of the Psalmist when he exclaimed, "Let us look unto the hills from whence cometh our help; our help cometh from the Lord who made the heavens and the earth."

A. L. HOWARTH, Superintendent.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

(This report appears to be the same as that of 1935, which see, except the two items herewith printed.)

Institutes.

a. We request our Institute Commissions to make the District Counsellor of Christian Education an ex-officio member of the Commissions within his district.

b. We hereby authorize the chairman of the Counsellors of Christian Education to call all deans of institutes and the Counsellors together at the close of the summer's institutes in order to plan for a comprehensive unified institute program. We recommend that the travel expenses of the deans to this session be met by the Conference Education Fund.

c. We recommend the establishment of an Institute Commission, with power to act in matters relating to the location of new institutes and other matters regarding institute policies. The Commission shall be composed of the deans of the institutes, the Counsellors of Christian Education, and one man from each district, to be named by the President of the Board of Education.

College of Puget Sound.

We authorize the raising of a committee of five—one man from each district—to confer and work with Dr. Todd, of the College of Puget Sound, on the plans for the coming anniversary celebration.

WILLIAM E. CALLAHAN, Secretary.

TACOMA GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

The Goodwill Industries is a business—plus. It uses broken-down materials, employs broken-down and disadvantaged people. It sells in a broken-down market. It exists for service and not for profit. God has promised to help those who consider the poor.

The Goodwill Industries is a social service enterprise—plus. It uses the best scientific teaching in an atmosphere of religious culture. To enhance the best personality we need God.

The Goodwill Industries is a religious organization—plus. It puts Christ into the shop, store, and office.

The Goodwill Industries is a democracy—plus. It employs co-operation, team play, and equality in business, social service, and religious life. It is "not charity, but a chance."

A total of $25,382.32 was paid in wages from the rehabilitated articles in 1935. The work is being done to carry out Christ's command to feed the hungry and clothe the naked.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Three years before the most northwesterly section of the United States became the State of Washington, Methodism had expressed her patriotic hope in two aggressive Annual Conferences. The Columbia River Conference was then twelve years old, with forty-eight ministers and about 3,000 members, while the Puget Sound Conference was two years old, with twenty-nine ministers, seven probationers and seven supplies, and 1,638 members. There remain of those pioneers but few to remind us of the years of beginnings. On the retired roll now appear five of the Columbbia River and seven of the Puget Sound group of fifty or more years ago. When we meet again five more will have achieved their semicentennial in the ministry of our church.

This year comes the centenary of the Whitman-SpaULDING Mission within our borders at Walla Walla, and we extend our congratulations to the successors of those stalwarts of the American Board.

It was in 1846 that William Roberts was appointed Superintendent of the Oregon Mission, succeeding George Gary, who had administered the stations begun by Jason Lee. Roberts was given charge of Methodist possibilities extending the length of the Pacific Coast as held by the United States. En route he stopped over at the Golden Gate and preached and visited and began a church at San Francisco. He arrived at Oregon City in June, 1847, and began his masterly leadership. In two years he organized the Oregon and California Mission Conference, in the chapel of the Oregon Institute. Every year he made a tour of all the settlements in Oregon and California. Next summer will be the ninetieth year since this more definite organization of the church along the Pacific Coast began. It would seem worthy of attention at each Annual Conference of the territory at the sessions of 1937, and we so recommend.

Eighty-five years ago William Roberts presided at the last session of the Oregon and California Mission Conference. This was in 1852, and but one appointment reached into Washington territory. From St. Helens, G. M. Berry crossed the Columbia into the lower Cowlitz Valley. This year Olympia was made the seat of state government, and Roberts, with J. H. Wilbur, visited there, preaching. Soon Benjamin Close introduced Methodism to Whidby Island and Seattle, and John F. Devore and D. E. Blaine began their wonderful pioneer ministry on Puget Sound, and G. Haines opened a circuit from Vancouver up the Columbia to the Dalles. Next year is eighty-five years, and calls for special recognition at our next Conference session.

JOHN M. CANSE, President;

JOHN A. HOFFMAN, Secretary.

HOME MISSIONS

Few professing Christians in America are consciously hypocritical or willingly inconsistent. But too frequently there is gross inconsistency between ideals and actual practice in our personal dealings and attitudes toward persons of other races or with the underprivileged of the white race.

Like the priest and Levite, we go out of our way when the stranger is found in our way. While we need financial support for all our missionary work, we need much more urgently to practice Christian brotherhood and justice toward others. Perhaps our greatest home missionary need is a more Christian attitude toward these peoples in our midst.

CHAS. MARVIN, Secretary;

C. H. SCHREIBER, Chairman.

INSTITUTIONS—TEMPORAL ECONOMY

Representatives from the following institutions have appeared before this Committee and their askings have been allowed as follows:

Conference Religious Education.—We concur with the goal of seven cents per school member for our Rally Day offering and with the present method of distribution.

Washington-Northern Idaho Council of Churches and Christian Education.—We recommend continued co-operation with this interchurch organization, and that funds raised for its support be credited as Conference benevolence.

Deaconess Children's Home, Everett.—We congratulate our Deaconesses on their successes in caring for fifty-nine children on a cash budget of $7,500. We urge our church organization and members to continue their generous gifts of food and clothing. We commend this Methodist home to all the churches of our Conference for their generous support. We further recommend that the churches of the Puget Sound District assume as their special responsibility the raising of funds necessary to open two now unused apartments.

Atlantic Street Settlement, Seattle.—We commend this Deaconess Settlement to the Conference for its good work, and urge our churches to contribute as generously as possible to its support. We commend the churches of the Seattle District for having assumed the primary responsibility for the capital indebtedness.

College of Puget Sound.—We congratulate our college on successfully ministering to the largest enrollment of its history without exceeding its budget. We believe that the plan under way for a Golden Jubilee Celebration in 1938 is in order and pledge it our support to the end that it may be a great victory. We recommend that whenever practicable our pulpits shall be opened to representatives of the college for the presentation of its work.

Wesley Foundation.—We recommend that the following askings be approved:

From Idaho charges for the University of Idaho, $750; from Washington charges, $7,500, to be divided as follows: for promotional work and treasurer, $300, the balance to be divided upon the ratio of 85% for the Wesley Foundation in Seattle, and 15% for the Wesley Foundation in Pullman.

We reapprove the "Legion of the Cross" campaign for the purpose of securing funds for the retirement of the indebtedness on the Foundation at the University of Washington, and recommend that the churches co-operate in the plan to complete the underwriting of this indebtedness by January 1, 1937.

In view of the fact that the student group at the State College of Washington has outgrown the present quarters provided by the Methodist Episcopal Church at Pullman, we approve the program for the solicitation of funds looking toward the establishment and maintenance of suitable housing facilities.

Finally: We urge our District Superintendents and pastors to give the same emphasis to the support of our Conference institutions as to World Service.

GRACE M. COOPER, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON PASTORAL SUPPORT

We wish to commend our pastors for the heroic way in which they have carried on during these trying years. We recognize that adequate financial support is essential to the perpetuity and effectiveness of our ministry; therefore we seek to encourage the increase of said support until it is sufficient to meet the needs of our pastors and their families.

We gratefully acknowledge the financial assistance given by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and the fine leadership rendered by the Board's Western representative, Dr. Walter Torbet.

We rejoice in the fact that an increasing number of charges have been able to pay ministerial support in full, and that some charges have increased the amount for pastoral support, while still others have increased the estimated amount to be paid during the coming year. We wish to commend these charges and to urge others to speedily do likewise, for it is evident that a more adequate support must be secured for many of our pastors.

The commission submits the following recommendations: 1. That an educational program shall be put on throughout the Conference to the end that the work of the church may be magnified in the thinking of our people and that increased interest may be aroused. As means to the carrying out of this program, we request (1) that the Board of Conference Claimants will make the education of the local church in stewardship and local finance a part of the task of its executive secretary; (2) that the District Superintendents will set up in each district one or more round-table groups dealing with stewardship, church finance, and general church management, and that they be urged to invite the best talent possible to assist in these round-table conferences; and (3) that the commission, in co-operation with the District Superintendents, seek to find and train those who can lead in the finances of the local church, in order that an increased sense of stewardship may be developed and sufficient means secured to finance the work of the church and provide an adequate support for the pastor. 2. We recommend that a minimum salary be set, as a working basis, for this year as follows: $1,000 for single men who are effective elders and giving full-time service; $1,200 and house for married men who are effective elders and giving full-time service.

M. J. PERDUE, Chairman.
O. J. BEADLES, Secretary.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST CONFERENCE

PERMANENT LOCATION—ENTERTAINMENT FUND

Joint Report

I. We do not recommend a permanent location for the Annual Conference sessions at this time: (1) No institution in the Conference has adequate facilities; (2) It would be asking too much of any church to assume continuous responsibility; (3) Rotation of sessions among the larger centers has many desirable advantages.

II. We recommend holding a session east of the Cascade Mountains at least once in each quadrennium.

III. The "Self Care" entertainment plan has become imperative. Changed family conditions, together with the large membership in our Conference, has made it increasingly difficult for the entertaining church to provide free lodgings and breakfast for us. To meet this critical situation we propose:

(1) That beginning July 1, 1936, an Entertainment Fund be created by an apportionment of an amount equal to 1% of the cash salary to all the churches in the Conference, the District Superintendents, and effective men holding special appointments. Each pastor, effective minister, and retired preacher shall share, and share alike, from this fund for the days in actual attendance upon the Conference sessions.

(2) Laymen, pastors, and district superintendents should be very diligent in seeing to it that this apportionment is raised by the local church over and above the pastor's regular salary claims.

(3) At their request, laymen are not now included in this plan.

IV. To carry out these recommendations, we propose a Commission on Conference Entertainment composed of two District Superintendents, five pastors, and five laymen, nominated by the Cabinet and approved by the United Session, whose duties shall be:

(1) The selection of the entertaining church.

(2) The apportionment of the Entertainment Fund among the churches.

(3) To receive and disburse the Entertainment Fund.

For the Joint Commission,

J. EDGAR PURDY, Chairman.

FREDERICK L. PEDERSEN, Secretary.

PUBLIC REFORM

Temperance

Whereas, All promises made by the advocates of repeal are broken, and in view of the enormous increase in consumption of intoxicating liquors, drunkenness, crime, delinquency among youth, automobile wrecks, and casualties, and the ever-mounting increase of inmates in our prisons and correctional institutions; and

Whereas, The drinking situation in the taverns, road houses, and dance halls is degrading and lowering our moral and social standards;

Therefore we pledge ourselves to wage a relentless campaign against the liquor traffic and to seek as the result of an intensive educational campaigning the following objectives:

1. Prohibition of the use of feminine pictures in advertising any kind of intoxicating liquors for beverage use.

2. The enactment of the Capper Bill to prohibit the advertising of liquor in dry territory.

3. The creation of dry zones around all public and private schools in in which no intoxicating liquor may be sold.

4. The prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquor in any place of amusement or in any other place where other business is conducted. Be it further

Resolved, That the Conference send a copy of this resolution to Clarence D. Martin, Governor of the State of Washington, and to the Liquor Control Board, requesting them to use their influence and power in behalf of the elimination of all propaganda for the sale of intoxicating liquor.

5. That the advertising of liquor of all kinds over the air be barred by Federal statute, commending such radio stations as are already refusing this type of advertising.

Motion Pictures

Recognizing the educational effect of motion pictures, we recommend that the church, in union with other organizations, use all its influence toward exercising intelligent censorship that the educational effects may be good rather than evil. That the religious world can affect the selection of pictures is evidenced by the notable improvement during the past year. Since block booking is the chief obstacle to the elimination of bad pictures, we demand that the practice be outlawed.

Compulsory Military Training

Resolved, That the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference shall reaffirm its opposition to the system of compulsory military training now in effect in the higher institutions of learning, and that the Conference, in support of this position, instruct pastors and lay members to lend all possible support to Washington Initiative Measure No. 112 by securing signatures to this petition now being circulated and by urging united support to this Initiative in the coming election.

Amusements

We would call attention to the special advice in the Discipline for 1932, Paragraph 73, covering the matter of the recreational life of our youth, and we urge the serious consideration and study thereof by each official board, and wherever possible the election of a Director of Recreation to plan and promote a wholesome recreational program.

Cigarettes

In view of the serious situation indicated by the increase of the use of cigarettes, particularly among young people, and believing that this situation is largely the result of an alluring advertising campaign which makes use of prominent athletes and socialites, we recommend that the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference express its disapproval of such advertising which injects itself into the home through the radio and newspaper comic supplements, and which constantly protrudes itself into the consciousness of our young people through the use of magazines, motion pictures, and billboard displays.

C. L. WHITNER, Secretary.

PUBLICATIONS

• We, the members of the Committee on Publications, wish to commend the Commission on the Church Hymnal for the outstanding achievement accomplished in the preparation of the new church Hymnal. We recommend its use in every church in the Conference.

We commend the work of the pastors in securing subscriptions to the Pacific Edition of "The Christian Advocate" during the past year, and we suggest that they maintain their diligence in this promotion until the churches of the Conference actually reach the established goal of one Advocate to every fifteen members. We further suggest the use of the Committee on Good Literature in securing Advocate subscriptions.

We wish to commend the editorship of Dr. Edward Laird Mills.

We wish to thank the Department of Church Schools for their publication of a quarterly especially designed for the use of the smaller church schools.

We wish to register our unqualified approval of "The Upper Room."

We suggest the display of appropriate religious books at the Easter and Christmas seasons.

ED. A. WOLFE, Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the members of the Pacific Northwest Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, assembled at University Temple, Seattle, Washington, with one accord give thanks to God, our heavenly Father, for His manifold blessings, and gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to all who have contributed toward making this, the eighth session of our Conference, a success. Therefore be it

Resolved, That

1. We heartily thank Geoffrey W. Stafford, our pastor-host, his staff, J. Randolph Sassnett, and the young people of the Wesley Foundation, and all other Methodists and friends whose gracious hospitality we have enjoyed.

2. We express our sincere appreciation:

(a) In having our own Bishop Titus Lowe as presiding officer, and for the direction and inspiration he has given in conducting the affairs of the Conference.

(b) To Governor Clarence D. Martin for his presence and warm words of welcome.

(c) To Dr. Lynn Harold Hough, who has deepened our faith, increased our hope, and widened our intellectual and spiritual perspective through his soul-lifting messages.

(d) To the University Congregational Church for the courtesies extended the Conference in permitting the use of its building for the lay sessions.

(e) To the Burroughs Adding Machine Company for furnishing machines without charge with which to do the clerical work of the Conference.

(f) To the Seattle press, which has co-operated by giving space to the Conference proceedings.

3. We further resolve to give ourselves with renewed loyalty and consecration to the work of the Kingdom.

SETH H. MORFORD,
FRANK E. GOODNOUGH.

SOCIAL SERVICE

I

We firmly believe we cannot worship God in the sanctuary and then society. We deplore and lift a voice of earnest protest against selfishness in all its forms, as manifest in the individual life and in social relationships. We believe the church must be "among" the needs, sufferings, and poverty of human life to challenge the world with the Christ program of "abundant" living. Therefore there must be an unfailing devotion upon our part to Christ and His cause.

We firmly believe we cannot worship God in the sanctuary and then pass Him by in the street. The church must be pledged to daily living in the spirit and practice of Christian co-operation.

II

We dedicate ourselves to the abolition of war. We believe war is unnecessary. Leadership in the cause of peace rightfully falls as a sacred mantle upon the shoulders of the United States. No other nation in the world is in such a strategic position to exert real leadership in the peace cause, and we feel that it is our bounden duty to measure up to this responsibility.

As steps toward preventing future wars we urge the following:

1. A statement by the United States Government of the terms on which we would be willing to join an Association of Nations.

2. Statement by the United States Government on the terms on which we will join the World Court.

3. Creation of a Department of Peace with full cabinet rank, that department to utilize every known means of approach to the human mind in a program of education on the causes, cost, and waste of war.

4. That our Government take the place of leadership among the nations in a genuine attempt to reduce armaments.

5. That in case of war, industry, commerce, and finance should be so organized that financial gains are eliminated from war.

6. Manufacture, by the Federal Government, of war munitions of all kinds, and the prohibition of the sale of munitions of war to any individual, group, or nation.

7. Calling by our Government of an economic conference which may approach the underlying economic causes of war, and seek a way toward their removal.

8. Granting of an immigration quota to Oriental nations on the same quota basis as now governs immigration from European nations.

Freedom of conscience is a priceless Christian heritage never to be surrendered. Therefore we petition the Government of the United States to grant to members of the Methodist Episcopal Church who may be conscientious objectors to war the same exemption from military service as has long been granted members of the Society of Friends and similar religious organizations. We further petition all educational institutions which require military training to excuse from such training any student belonging to the Methodist Episcopal Church who has conscientious scruples against such training.

III

We challenge our people to sponsor and encourage a further study of Christian co-operation. We believe there is a wide difference between Christian co-operation and co-operatives organized upon a purely selfish motive. We believe there can be no social security without Christ. That without the application of Christian principles in all human relationships no co-operative society can be achieved.

We commend the work of the Christian students of our colleges in their co-operative associations and their marked contribution to the future of Christian co-operation. We commend all business and philanthropic organizations that are today forwarding the program of Christ by putting into actual practice His spirit of co-operation, sharing, and brotherhood.

IV

We reaffirm those ideals that have made America a great nation. We dedicate ourselves to the building of a truly Christian citizenry, not by revolution, but by the natural process of the incarnation of Christian principles in the society of today.

V

To the overcoming of every social sin of our day, we hereby dedicate all our resources of organization, pulpit, press, and radio, and pray that our program of Christian progress may be sanctified in the spirit of the Christ who said, "For their sakes I sanctify myself."

RALPH I. THOMAS, Secretary.

STATE OF CHURCH

We deplore the spiritual condition of the world and earnestly call on all Methodists to adhere more closely to the teachings and works of our Master.

We believe that there will have to be a strict adherence to the preaching of the full gospel in every pulpit, and that there should be frequent altar calls at every service.

We believe that the church should be made the social center of every community, and should assume again the leadership in every reform movement.

We again protest against the use of the radio programs for the advertising of alcoholic beverages, and recommend that protests be made by this Conference to the radio commission.

We would again ask that the youth of the church be given a larger responsibility in the work of the church, and that every charge endeavor to send one of its young people each year to the Annual Conference, not as a delegate, but for the instruction of the youth.

We recommend that the family altar be in every Methodist home, and that more emphasis be stressed on the spiritual life of the home.

We commend this Conference for its wonderful Christian spirit and brotherly love.

FINOS BARNES, Chairman.
GROVER P. DAVIS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE—REFORMS (JOINT COMMITTEE)

Resolution by Joint Committee of Special Temperance Committee and United Sessions Committee on Public Reform

We believe that all religious and temperance forces of the State of Washington should unite in a single organization to oppose the liquor traffic.

We hereby offer our services to our sister churches in the accomplishment of this purpose, and hereby reinforce our offer by the request to the Bishop and Cabinet to appoint a member of our Conference, whose duty it shall be to contact the other religious bodies in an effort to bring about the single temperance organization which we deem so desirable.

We further pledge the support of our churches to this representative in the field, and urge our official boards to include a definite amount in their budgets for his support.

We nominate the following joint committee to represent us in negotiations with other churches looking toward the above-named objective. (See list of United Sessions Committees.)

ADDENDA

Corrections to the Minutes.—These Minutes are to be an accurate account of the proceedings of the eighth session; they are also to be a convenience to the readers. The Secretary requests the courtesy of written corrections and suggestions.

Pioneer Church, Walla Walla, E. A. Wolfe, pastor.—To correct an error of the previous year, this church paid $100 more than its regular prorate in 1935 to the Board of Stewards. This item cannot so appear in the printed Minutes. We trust that this notation will clear the matter to the satisfaction of all concerned.

MEMOIRS

Memoirs are primarily historical. In furnishing material for their preparation, please see that the following items are given exactly: full name, including maiden name of married women; date and place of birth; date and place of death; place of interment; historical summary; very brief eulogy.

ROBERT JOHN REID

Robert John Reid, for thirty-five years a figure in Washington Methodism, went to his crowning from his home at Spring Beach, Washington, on July 14, 1935, after an illness of almost six years.

His entire life was spent in contact with the church, his father, Rev. Thomas Reid, being a minister in the Methodist Church in Canada.

Robert was born at Caledonia, Ontario, Canada, on August 11, 1867. Following his preparatory work, secured in several schools, he graduated from Northwestern University in 1898 with the Bachelor of Arts degree. The College of Puget Sound later made him a Doctor of Divinity.

Following the call of his Lord, he was received on trial by the Northwest Indiana Conference in 1894. Including his probationary years, he gave thirty-five years of effective service to the church. Within this Conference he held the following charges: Pomeroy, Walla Walla (Wilbur), Lewiston, Centralia, Tacoma (Mason), Seattle (Green Lake), Everett, Superintendent of the Bellingham District of the Puget Sound Conference.

He was a delegate to the General Conference of 1920, which was held in Des Moines, Iowa.

On May 24, 1899, he was united in marriage with Miss Harriett C. Wright, who survives him.

"He was a reader of books . . . a great lover of men . . . gave himself utterly to Christian service," say his brothers in Christ.

Funeral services were held in Seattle on July 16 under the direction of Dr. Edward H. Todd, president of the College of Puget Sound. He was assisted by several of the brethren. Following cremation, his ashes were scattered over Puget Sound.

RICHARD NELSON ORRILL

Dr. Orrill preached at the North Hollywood (California) Community Church Sunday morning, July 14, read a wedding service in the afternoon. About five o'clock in the afternoon, while calling at the parsonage, he suffered a heart attack and passed away at 7.30 P. M., just as the evening congregation was gathering. The services were dismissed, and the saddened people returned to their homes.

He was born in Hanover, Indiana, October 10, 1867. He was received on trial in 1887 in the West Nebraska Conference. In 1919 he transferred to the Puget Sound Conference, where he served Queen Anne Church (Seattle) for four years. Due to serious illness of his wife, he superannuated in 1924. Even so he had given thirty-five years of effective service to the church.

He held the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Doctor of Divinity from Nebraska Wesleyan.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. R. R. Detweiler. His body rests in the Grand View Cemetery of Glendale, California.

(See the Minutes of 1934, page 257, for the memoirs of Mrs. Orrill.)

LUTHER J. COVINGTON

Rev. Luther J. Covington, seventy-five, a prominent member of the Pacific Northwest Conference for many years, passed away at his home in Bellingham on August 15, 1936. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. W. Jeffrey and Rev. F. A. LaViolette, who have also followed him to their reward within the year. Interment took place at the Bellingham Cemetery.

Immediately upon graduation from the Boston University School of Theology in 1890, he came west to be president of the Olympia Collegiate Institute, which position he gave up two years later to enter the active pastorate. After serving at South Bend, Fern Hill (Tacoma), Elma, Shelton, Issaquah, and Marysville, he became Superintendent of the Washington Children's Home Finding Society, which he served for seventeen years. He retired from the latter position and the active ministry in 1930. Except for a short time during which he lived in Seattle, his home has been in Bellingham since his retirement. The major growth of the Washington Children's Home Finding Society was during the seventeen years of his service. The farm at Stevenson and the receiving home at Spokane were both created and acquired during this time.

Rev. Covington is survived by his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Jesse Klinker, of Seattle; two brothers: Frank B. Covington, Seattle, and John W. Covington, of Los Angeles; two sisters: Mrs. George B. Anderson, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Sadie Gregg, of Cleveland, Ohio.

FRANCIS ALEXANDER LAVIOLETTE

This intense and inspired leader of the church and head of the delegation to the 1936 General Conference of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference was dramatically called home on the evening of August 22, 1935.

His earthly life began April 7, 1869, in Ontario, Canada, where he was born the son of Francis and Jane LaViolette. There were three other children. The mother, a devout follower of Jesus, soon took her family to the region of LaMar, Iowa, where she homesteaded.

As a lad Dr. LaViolette gave his heart to God. It was during revival services conducted by a Mother Van Cott. The pastor was R. C. Glass, of sainted memory.

Immediately he began to exhort and preach, and in 1888 received a license to preach from the Northwest Iowa Conference. He became a supply pastor in the Dakota Conference in 1889, and was received on trial by that Conference in 1892. The Columbia River Conference received him into full connection in 1894. Three years later he was transferred to the Puget Sound Conference, which later merged and became a part of the present Pacific Northwest Conference. Dr. LaViolette was a member of the commission which merged these Conferences.

Within these Conferences he held pastorates in Tacoma, Spokane, Bremerton, Vancouver, Seattle, Everett, and Juneau, Alaska. He built the present churches at Bremerton and at Juneau, Alaska.

In 1829 he became Executive Secretary of the Board of Conference Claimants, Inc., of this Conference, and was in the midst of plans for bringing us into the Reserve Pension Plan when God called him. He was a member of the Board of Pensions and Relief, and a member of the General Conferences of 1932 and 1936. During the World War he was in France with the forces of the United States as a Y.M.C.A. Secretary.

He served a term as president of the Washington State Chamber of Commerce.

He was a Bachelor of Arts, a Master of Arts, and a Doctor of Divinity, all from the College of Puget Sound, and an alumnus of Drew Theological Seminary.

On June 22, 1893, in Howard, South Dakota, he married Louise Olga Winden. She and the four children who were born to the union, survive.

Triumphal services were held in University Temple, August 24, 1935, under the leadership of the Superintendent of the Seattle-Tacoma District, Dr. Carl K. Mahoney. The sermon was delivered by Dr. Charles MacCaughy, pastor at Yakima; the prayer by Dr. John B. Magee, of First Church, Seattle. The brethren present gathered about the casket and sang:

"There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal dwell;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain!"

"Nothing is more certain than had Dr. LaViolette lived he would have been one of the outstanding members of the General Conference at Columbus," wrote Dr. Edward Laird Mills in "The Christian Advocate" (Pacific Edition) of September 19, 1935. "He not only made himself master of a specific subject—pensions and relief—but he had a taste for parliamentary affairs similar to that which gave Ray Allen and Horace Lincoln Jacobs their vogue in many General Conferences."

His body rests in Washelloi Park, Seattle.

EDWARD D. WHITE

Funeral services were conducted by Dr. John B. Magee for Edward D. White in Seattle, who passed away following a lingering illness of two years, on September 12, 1935. Dr. White, who was seventy-five years of age, was a son-in-law of Seattle's first minister, the Rev. David E. Blaine.

Following a romance that began at Syracuse University, he was married to Martha Louisa Blaine in 1885. He received his M.A. degree from Syracuse University in the same year, and later graduated from Cazenovia Seminary, New York. He was received into the Troy Conference on trial in 1885.

During his forty-one years in the active ministry, Dr. White served Haven Church, Seattle; Chehalis, Des Moines, Calvary, and Tibbetts Memorial in Seattle; Renton and Monroe. For a time he returned to the East and the Tri-State Conference in New York, returning again to the West in 1911. Dr. White served with honor in the old Puget Sound Conference until his retirement in 1926. Taking up his residence in Seattle, he became an active member of the First Church.

He is survived by his widow; a sister, Mary E. White, of Canajoharie, N. Y.; five daughters: Mrs. F. St. Clair Dickinson, of Seattle; Mrs. Ralph C. Agnell, of Pelham Manor, N. Y.; Mrs. Clyde L. Williamson, of New London, Conn.; Mrs. John P. Herring, of Westwood, N. J.; and Mrs. Joseph T. Hungate, of Oberlin, Ohio; two sons: Homer B. White, of Sequim, Wash., and Dr. Willard D. White, of Minneapolis; and twenty-two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

JOHN WILLARD MILLER

Brother Miller was born in Shickshinny, Pennsylvania, September 1, 1858, and died at his home in Seattle, Washington, October 10, 1935, after a brief illness.

Converted early in life, he was granted an exhorter's license at seventeen. He was received on trial by the Nebraska Conference in 1888, continued in the effective relationship until 1920, when he retired from the Columbia River Conference. Within the bounds of the latter he served Thornton, Manito (Spokane), and Hayes Park (Spokane).

He secured his education from Greenwich (Rhode Island) Academy and Nebraska Wesleyan University, from which latter institution he graduated.

On June 29, 1933, he and his wife celebrated the golden wedding anniversary of their marriage. Her maiden name was Clara M. Blakeslee. She survives him, as do also a son, Arthur B. Miller, of Seattle, and a brother, Max Miller, of Tacoma.

Dr. Geoffrey W. Stafford, who conducted the final services, spoke of his faithfulness, his kindly spirit, and his interest in certain great moral issues. He passed over the river calmly, trusting in the gospel he had preached and lived so long and well.

His body rests in Acacia Park Cemetery, Seattle.

CHARLES A. OWENS

Rev. Charles A. Owens, seventy-eight, passed away at the University Hospital in San Francisco on October 15, 1935. Funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist Church, San Rafael, California, by Rev. Homer S. Bodley, assisted by Charlotte Jones, of St. Helena, and Charles Lord, pastor at Mill Valley.

He was born in Baltimore, Maryland, on August 29, 1857. He attended William Jewell College in Maryland, as well as studying in France and Germany. As a young man his faith took him to the west coast of Africa, where he served under Bishop William Taylor, formerly a missionary to California. Returning to America because of ill-health, he commenced work in New Mexico. He was received on trial in the Oklahoma Conference on October 14, 1894. In New Mexico he met and married Mary A. Carlyon, May 15, 1892.

In 1896 he united with the Puget Sound Conference, where he served for seventeen years many difficult charges. Six months of that time was spent in the Philippine Islands, then a part of this Conference. On Puget Sound he served South Bend, Noosack, Indian Mission, Bay View, Stanwood, Arlington, Bellingham Circuit, and Issaquah. In 1916 he received his retired relationship, but could not quit the active work. He took up work in St. Helena, California, for five years, and then San Rafael for three years. He then took up permanent residence there and remained a faithful and ready participant of the church.

Rev. Owens is survived by his widow and a foster son, Clifford Cornwell, of San Rafael. Interment was in the Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael. He lived in implicit trust, going where he was sent, and serving many charges that otherwise would not have been served. He took the promises of God literally, never complained of his "cross" even in his last illness. He was a man of keen sense of humor which carried him through many church problems triumphantly.

HORACE WILLISTON

Horace Williston passed away on Christmas Day, 1935, at the family home in Puyallup. He had spent a happy day with his children and grandchildren, and after the family devotions, in which he read from the fourteenth chapter of John's Gospel, he retired to an adjoining room, and from thence into the "larger room" of the Father's house. The funeral services were held in the Puyallup church under the direction of the pastor, Philip H. Paymond. Retired ministers who uttered beautiful tributes of affection and memory were Joel Vigus, W. O. Benadom, George Frame, J. M. Wilder, and T. Revelle.

Horace Williston was born in Ohio, November 6, 1856. His early years were spent in Pennsylvania, where he also received his education. His father was a general in the Civil War. He was given his local preacher's license at the Athens Quarterly Conference. After his ordination in the New York Central Conference, October 10, 1886, he became a member of the Wyoming Conference. In 1890 he came to Washington, transferring his membership to the Puget Sound Conference, which he served conspicuously until his retirement in 1925. It was during his pastorate at Everett he married Lena Brandish in 1895.

Appointments in this Conference include: Tacoma, Central; Everett; Tacoma, St. Paul; Seattle, Asbury; Tacoma, Fern Hill; Sumner, Port Angeles, Port Townsend, Issaquah; Seattle, Rainier Beach; Show Memorial, Camas, Vancouver, Bethany, Morton, Buckley and South Prairie, Algona and Pacific.

Besides his widow, he also leaves three sons: Horace, Frank, and George. Interment is in the Woodlawn Abbey Mausoleum, Puyallup.

THOMAS W. JEFFREY

Dr. Jeffrey was born near Rockport, Indiana, April 12, 1867, and died in Bellingham, Washington, March 2, 1936. Funeral services were conducted by Bishop Titus Lowe and Rev. R. S. Dunn in Bellingham and Spokane, respectively, following which his body was laid away in Greenwood Cemetery, Spokane.

He graduated from DePauw University, and received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from both Southwestern University, Winfield, Kansas, and Iowa Wesleyan University, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

On May 22, 1892, he was married to Bethany A. Norton at Lander, Wyoming. His wife survives him, as do also a son, Earl C. Jeffrey, of Chicago, Illinois; and a daughter, Mrs. Clay F. Laude, of Spokane.

He was received on trial by the Wyoming Conference in 1891, and was an effective elder to the day of his death. Within the bounds of this Conference he served but two charges: Central (Spokane) and Garden Street (Bellingham).

"The character and personality of this outstanding minister included a well-balanced combination of genuineness, poise, sympathy, ruggedness, frankness, honor, humor, modesty, catholicity, and spirituality."

"As a preacher he was eloquent and dynamic; as a friend he was enjoyable and loyal; as a servant of his Master he was practical and sacrificial; as a pastor he followed in the footsteps of Goldsmith's village preacher and 'watched and wept, prayed and felt for all.'"

JOHN M. HIXSON

Brother Hixson was received on trial in the Idaho Conference in 1902. After giving thirty-one years of effective service, he retired in 1934. During that time he had served the following appointments: Crescent Harbor, North Bellingham, LaConner, Nooksack, Marysville, Fairhaven (Bellingham), Port Townsend, Tumwater.

He was born in Memphis, Missouri, February 24, 1863, and died in Tacoma, Washington, March 30, 1936. His body is laid away in Mountain View Cemetery, Tacoma.

For his later schooling he attended Hughes Medical College, Willamette University, and Kimball School of Theology.

Final services were conducted by Rev. Robert Brumblay, assisted by Brothers Bird and Seely. The brethren of Tacoma and vicinity were present as a group. He is survived by his widow, who resides at Tumwater; by two daughters, and three grandchildren.

"A man who shared in the building of the Puget Sound Conference, a conscientious and earnest preacher."

ANDREW JACKSON McNEMEE

"Brother Mac" has passed on to his Maker. "One of the last of that hardy race of pioneer preachers who carried the Word to the erring throughout the length and breadth of the Pacific Northwest" died at his home in Langley, Washington, April 26, 1936.

He was born in Portland, Oregon, March 5, 1848, the son of emigrants who came west over the Oregon Trail and arrived on the banks of the Columbia River after terrifying experiences on the old Meek's Cutoff.

He received a common school education, following which he attended Willamette University.

In 1887 he was received on trial by the Puget Sound Conference, and for the next twenty-three years he did the work of a circuit rider from such appointments as Snohomish, Dungeness, Lopez, Kalama and Carrolton, Copley Circuit, Suntan and Cherry Valley, Grays River, Kirkland, Snoqualmie, Issaquah, Sequim, Colby, Langley and Camano. He built churches at Falls River, 1885; Cherry Valley, 1886; Dungeness, 1889; Friday Harbor, 1890; Grays River, 1893; and Langeley, 1900.

He was devoted, passionately so, to the Methodist Church. His retirement was in name only. The romance of his life and contribution to the Northwest has been reduced to the printed page in "Brother Mac," a book now to be found only in the older libraries of the State of Washington.

He never married. During the latter years his life was filled with love for children. At his own request the Superintendent of the Langley Sunday school, Mrs. Ethel B. Manley, conducted the final services. The children sang the songs, following which he was laid away in the Langley cemetery. Mrs. C. A. Morden, a niece, of Portland, Oregon, survives.

ROBERT C. HARTLEY

On April 29, 1936, Brother Hartley, who for twenty-five consecutive years called the roll of the Conference, answered the roll called up yonder. He had not been ill long, but he was ready.

"Bob" was born February 15, 1873, in England. He came to the United States in 1890, and to Washington in 1904, in which year he was received on trial by the Puget Sound Conference. His appointments included: Castle Rock, Bay Center, PeEll, Coupeville, Blaine, Rainier Beach (Seattle), Montesano, Sequim, Simpson Avenue (Hoquiam), Lynden, River-ton (Seattle). For nine years he was Superintendent of Loggers Work, and for a time during the war he was in the Army Y.M.C.A. at Fort Lewis, Washington.

As Secretary of the Puget Sound Conference, 1910-1928, inclusive, and of the Pacific Northwest Conference, 1929-1934, inclusive, he will be known and loved. Dr. O. S. Baketel, editor of the General Minutes, in a letter in the Secretary's files, said: "Your Questions and Appointments are the most satisfactory of any I have had since Bishop _____ has been out your way. I rather think the Secretary had a hand in arranging them in such good shape." Another says: "A remarkably good Secretary."

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mabel Hartley; four sons: Henry, of Coquille, Oregon; Herbert, of Chicago; Marshall, of Portland, Oregon; and Robert, of Bellingham; a daughter, Mabel, living at home.

Services were conducted by the District Superintendent, Dr. C. K. Mahoney, assisted by several of the brethren. His body rests in the Riverton cemetery at Riverton Heights, Washington.

WILLIAM HENRY LEECH

Born January 5, 1865, on a farm in Union County, Indiana, the fourth and youngest son of William Henry and Mucinda Maria (Hill) Leech. By the time he was five years of age the great White Plague had wiped out his family and many near relatives. Their graves are to be found surrounding the Presbyterian church in which, at the age of seventeen, he gave his heart to God.

The call to preach was immediate and insistent. To prepare himself he attended Hanover College and Wabash College, graduating from the latter institution in 1887 as a Bachelor of Arts, later Master of Arts.

That same year, on June 8, he and Mary Athaline Stanton were united in marriage.

Constantly troubled by an ill body, he taught school and farmed.

He was received on trial by the St. Louis Conference in 1892 and was appointed to Liberal, Missouri, a town founded under the auspices of atheism and infidelity. He gave himself with such abandon to the Master's work that his health failed and he was ordered by the doctor to "the Puget Sound country."

They arrived in Seattle in December, 1892, and the Presiding Elder, Dr. T. B. Ford, appointed him to Vashon. During his effective years he held the following appointments: Coupeville; professor, Puget Sound University; Port Townsend; University (Seattle); Trinity (Seattle); executive officer, Methodist Exhibit A.Y.P. Exposition; Calvary (Seattle); Assistant First Church (Seattle); Seattle Methodist Union missionary; Des Moines.

He was granted the retired relation at the Conference of 1928. On the 7th of May, 1936, he heard the call of his Master to "come higher."

Services were conducted at Trinity Church, Seattle, by Rev. Ernest Barber, assisted by Rev. H. W. Michener and others. His body rests in Washelli Cemetery, Seattle.

Seattle Methodism especially bears the marks of the pioneering work which was done by this man of God. The total record of the new church schools started, churches begun, and church members rededicated is written only in heaven. Among present churches which he started is University Temple, in which the present session of Conference is being held.

MARGARET E. REVELLE

Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Revelle, wife of Rev. Charles S. Revelle, retired, passed away Friday, June 21, 1935, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. D. Jennings, in Tacoma, Washington. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. King D. Beach, D.D., of Tacoma, and interment was in the Tacoma Cemetery.

She was born on August 17, 1855, in St. Anne, Missouri. She spent her girlhood in St. Louis and Salem, Missouri. On March 26, 1882, she married, and she and her husband served several charges in Missouri. In 1892 they transferred to the Puget Sound Conference, where numerous charges felt the influence of her courageous and unselfish life. Among their pastorates were St. Paul and Mason churches in Tacoma; Douglas, Alaska; South Bend, and Chehalis.

Mrs. Revelle had been a semi-invalid for a number of years. Besides her husband, she is survived by one son, Charles E. Revelle; three daughters, Mrs. F. G. Jennings and Mrs. W. W. Wainwright, of Tacoma, and Mrs. Percy Harader, of Puyallup; a sister, Mrs. Mary E. Lindsay, of Tacoma; a brother, J. A. Wilson, of Detroit, Michigan, and twelve grandchildren.

MRS. O. W. (CLARA M.) MINTZER

Mrs. Mintzer died November 4, 1935, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Maurice P. Stoute, of Wenatchee, Washington. Services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church of Cashmere, by Rev. F. M. Morton, assisted by Rev. C. M. Burris. Interment was at Cashmere.

She was born Clara M. Smith, in London, England, on April 20, 1861. She became the bride of O. W. Mintzer on January 20, 1879. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary together. Brother Mintzer was called "home" in 1934. (Minutes, page 256.)

Together they came to Washington in 1897, when he was appointed to the charge of Olympia. Later they moved to Pullman, Washington; then into the Idaho Conference, and still later served for nine years in Spokane. For a time he was Field Secretary of the Washington Deaconess Hospital. "Her life was devoted to helping her husband in his ministerial work."

MRS. NELLIE CLULOW

Mrs. Nellie Clulow passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dix Rowland, of Tacoma, Washington, on December 16, 1935. For four years she had been suffering from a stroke, which had taken her shortly following an address before the State Convention of the W.C.T.U., of which she was Vice-President. Final services were conducted by Dr. King D. Beach in the First Methodist Episcopal Church. The funeral sermon was given by Dr. Edward H. Todd. Interment was in the Tacoma Cemetery.

Mrs. Clulow was born in Ireland, June 26, 1853. She married James Clulow in 1878, and came to America in 1883. They settled in Iowa, where Mr. Clulow was a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church. After serving numerous charges in Iowa and Minnesota they came to Tacoma in 1903 and were appointed to Central Church. The native ability of Mrs. Clulow as a public speaker and preacher gained an enviable reputation for her. She became widely known throughout the Northwest Area as an evangelist and lecturer. For five years she was Conference President of The Woman's Home Missionary Society. For years she gave herself to combating the liquor forces in the state of Washington. Her addresses were packed full of facts and rare wit, and were telling factors in the campaigns that resulted in a dry state.

Besides Mrs. Rowland, Mrs. Clulow leaves a son, John B. Clulow, of The Dalles, Oregon; two daughters, Mrs. A. C. Thompson, of Seattle, and Mrs. Ernest D. Cook, of Tacoma. A younger son, William, died a few years ago. She is also survived by eight grandchildren.

MINUTES OF THE LAY CONFERENCE

The Lay Conference of the Pacific Northwest Conference convened at 9 A. M., June 18, 1936, at the University Congregational Church in Seattle, Washington, with President G. Harold Thompson presiding.

Following the devotions, which were led by Joseph B. Hall, of Mount Vernon, the President announced that it would be necessary to fill two vacancies of the Conference, namely, those of Secretary and Treasurer.

Chapin D. Foster was nominated for the position of Secretary pro tem. There being no other nominations, he was elected by acclamation.

Grover Davis was nominated for the position of Treasurer pro tem, and, there being no other nominations, was elected by acclamation.

The Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

President Thompson suggested that in the absence of a formal program for the morning session, reports be heard from four lay delegates to the General Conference from the Pacific Northwest Conference who were present.

Mrs. Rufus Woods, of Wenatchee, gave an interesting report of her impressions of the Conference in general. Mr. J. B. Hall, of Mount Vernon, spoke of the spiritual influences of the Conference and of his service on the Committee on Temporal Economy.

Mr. Chas. A. Robbins, of Tacoma, told of the debate on the question of church union, as well as the "mechanics" of the Conference. Mr. Chapin D. Foster, of Chehalis, presented the work of the Conference, touching social service, world peace, and temperance.

J. M. Weaver, of the Book Concern, gave a brief outline of the work of the Book Concern, referring particularly to the church's program of religious education.

President Thompson announced standing committees of the Association as follows:

Credentials—Mrs. Grace M. Cooper, Chairman; Fred R. Levering, H. Kincaid.

Resolutions—Seth H. Morford, Chairman; George R. Bigelow, Leonard Wager, Mrs. Paul W. Sweet, Mrs. A. E. Keing.

Nominations—J. M. Moore, Chairman; F. A. Hazeltine, John Hazen, Russell E. Lind, Howard Gregory.

Mr. Herbert Lewis spoke on the work of the Wesley Foundation, and with Rev. J. Randolph Sasnett, its director, conducted an informal seminar which was very informative.

Adjournment was taken until 1.30 P. M., Friday afternoon.

The Lay Association met Friday afternoon, with President Thompson presiding.

The report of the Credentials Committee was received and adopted as follows: Puget Sound District, 26; Seattle-Tacoma, 31; Spokane, 33; Vancouver, 19; Walla Walla, 16. Total, 125.

The report of the Nominating Committee was received, as follows:

President, George R. Bigelow, Olympia.

Vice-President, J. B. Hall, Mount Vernon.

Vice-President, Fred R. Levering, Wallace.

Secretary, Chapin D. Foster, Chehalis.

Treasurer, Grover Davis, Burlington.

It was moved that the report be accepted, nominations closed, and a unanimous ballot be cast for those nominated. Motion carried and the ballot cast.

It was moved that the bill of the Secretary's office covering expense of the past year, amounting to $6.85, be paid. Carried.

Mr. George P. Firth, chairman of the Transportation Committee, presented the subject of pooled expenses by lay delegates. After some discussion, it was moved that the discussion be tabled. Carried.

The report of the Resolutions Committee was received. The first resolution expressed the appreciation of the Association for the use of the University Congregational Church. Carried. The second recommended that election of the lay delegate take place at the first Quarterly Conference, and that the name of the delegate and reserve be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association at as early a date as possible. Carried.

The matter of reduction of districts was discussed informally, but no action taken.

An additional report on the work of Wesley Foundation was given by Mr. Herbert Lewis.

The Treasurer reported a total of $13.66 from the collection.

A motion was adopted thanking the lay delegates to the General Conference for their service in that body.

Considerable discussion was had on the confusion attendant upon the convening of a number of Committees of the United Sessions, and the officers instructed to work for an elimination of such confusion at the Conference session next year.

Informal discussion of church finances brought out a number of reports of plans being followed successfully in a number of churches in the Conference.

A vote of appreciation for the work of Rev. J. Randolph Sasnett, director of Wesley Foundation, was adopted.

The new officers of the Association were installed.

A vote of appreciation was extended to Dr. John B. Magee for his inspiring address at the annual dinner of the Association.
